

2022 CHAPTER 25

Duties to ensure period products are obtainable free of charge

Provision of free period products: Department scheme

1.—(1) The Department must ensure that period products are obtainable free of charge (in accordance with arrangements established and maintained by the Department) by all persons who need to use them.

(2) The period products obtainable free of charge by a person under such arrangements are to be sufficient products to meet the person's needs while in Northern Ireland.

(3) Arrangements established and maintained under subsection (1)—

- (a) must include provision under which period products are obtainable by another person on behalf of the person who needs to use them;
- (b) may, where they include provision under which period products may be delivered to a person, require the person to pay costs associated with packing and delivery (except where the person could not reasonably obtain products in accordance with the arrangements in any other way).

(4) The Department must consult on the arrangements to be established and maintained by it under subsection (1), including—

- (a) the ways in which users of period products ought to be able to obtain period products free of charge;
- (b) the locations in which period products ought to be obtainable free of charge; and
- (c) the types of period products which ought to be obtainable free of charge.

(5) The Department must publish a written statement describing—

- (a) the consultation conducted under subsection (4); and

Status: This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Period Products (Free Provision) Act (Northern Ireland) 2022, Cross Heading: Duties to ensure period products are obtainable free of charge. (See end of Document for details)

(b) the arrangements to be established and maintained under subsection (1).

(6) The Department must publish information about the locations where free period products are obtainable in such ways as it thinks appropriate to bring that information to the attention of persons who need to use period products or may need to use period products in the future.

(7) The Department must do so within one year of establishing the arrangements under subsection (1) and on at least an annual basis thereafter.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (2), the needs of a person who lives in Northern Ireland are to be regarded as all arising while in Northern Ireland.

(9) In this section, “the Department” means the Executive Office.

Provision of free period products: public service bodies

2.—(1) Each department must in respect of the public service bodies within its functions, within the period of one year beginning with the day on which this Act is passed, specify by regulations those public service bodies to which the duty in subsection (3) applies.

- (2) The public service bodies specified under subsection (1) must include—
- (a) bodies with functions that would enable them to discharge the duty in subsection (3) in relation to persons in hospital premises;
 - (b) bodies with functions that would enable them to discharge that duty in relation to persons in school premises;
 - (c) bodies with functions that would enable them to discharge that duty in relation to persons in further education premises; and
 - (d) bodies with functions that would enable them to discharge that duty in relation to persons in higher education premises.

(3) Each public service body specified in regulations made by a department (a “specified public service body”) under subsection (1) must ensure that period products are obtainable free of charge (in accordance with arrangements established and maintained by the body) by persons in its premises who need to use them.

(4) A specified public service body is to do so by providing period products, or securing their provision, in such locations within those premises as are specified in arrangements established and maintained under subsection (3).

Status: This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Period Products (Free Provision) Act (Northern Ireland) 2022. Cross Heading: Duties to ensure period products are obtainable free of charge. (See end of Document for details)

(5) Where a specified public service body operates over a number of sites in Northern Ireland, the locations specified in the arrangements established and maintained under subsection (3) must include locations in premises at each such site.

(6) The period products obtainable free of charge by a person under the arrangements established and maintained under subsection (3) are to be sufficient products to meet the person's needs while the person is in the premises.

(7) Where regulations under subsection (1) specify a public service body they may also—

- (a) provide for descriptions of premises to be treated as being (or as not being) premises of that body for the purposes of this Act;
- (b) provide for descriptions of persons to be treated as being (or as not being) persons “in” that body's premises for the purposes of this Act; and
- (c) make provision about when premises are to be treated as “in use” for the purposes of section 3(2); and provision under paragraph (b) may include provision in respect of persons who are on premises without a legitimate reason for being there.

(8) Before specifying a public service body under this section, a department—

- (a) must consult the public service body; and
- (b) may consult any other body or person they think appropriate.

(9) Public service bodies may be specified for the purposes of this section by reference to a class that they are in.

(10) Where they are proposed to be so specified under subsection (9), subsection (8) applies in relation to each of those public service bodies.

(11) Regulations under subsection (1) may be made jointly by two or more departments, and where two or more departments jointly make such regulations—

- (a) each public service body specified by the regulations must be within the functions of one (or more) of those departments; and
- (b) the consultation required by subsection (8) in respect of that body may be conducted by the department within whose functions the body falls (or, if there is more than one such department, any of them).

(12) Regulations under this section may specify that different public service bodies specified in the regulations are to become subject to the duty in subsection (3) on different days.

(13) Regulations under this section may make incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision.

(14) Regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the Assembly.

Status: This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Period Products (Free Provision) Act (Northern Ireland) 2022, Cross Heading: Duties to ensure period products are obtainable free of charge. (See end of Document for details)

(15) Each department must review the regulations under subsection (1) that specify public service bodies within its functions at intervals of no more than three years, and if necessary take steps to ensure that the regulations are updated.

(16) For the purposes of this section a body is within the functions of a particular department if it is a body with functions in the subject area for which the department is responsible.

PROSPECTIVE

Arrangements under sections 1 and 2: particular requirements

3.—(1) Arrangements established and maintained under section 1(1) or section 2(3) must provide for—

- (a) period products to be obtainable—
 - (i) reasonably easily; and
 - (ii) in a way that respects the dignity, privacy and confidentiality of persons obtaining them;
- (b) a reasonable choice of different types of period products to be obtainable, having regard to articles which are reusable; and
- (c) publicising to persons in a way that respects their dignity, privacy and confidentiality—
 - (i) the availability of period products;
 - (ii) that period products are obtainable free of charge; and
 - (iii) the arrangements for obtaining those period products free of charge, including in particular how, where and when products may be obtained.

(2) Arrangements established and maintained under section 2(3) must provide for period products to be obtainable by persons in its premises at all times when the specified public service body's premises are in use, whether or not in use by the public.

PROSPECTIVE

Reporting

4.—(1) The Executive must review and make a report on the operation of the provisions of sections 1 and 2.

(2) A report under this section is to include—

- (a) the number of public service bodies specified by regulations under section 2;
- (b) an assessment of the efficiency and effectiveness of the exercise of the functions carried out under sections 1 and 2; and
- (c) any further information that the Executive considers appropriate.

(3) A report under this section must be—

- (a) laid before the Assembly by the Executive; and
- (b) published by the Executive,

before the end of the period of three years beginning with the day on which this Act receives Royal Assent, and at subsequent intervals of no more than three years.
