Other provisions

Increase of official pensions N.I.

69.—(1) Where by virtue of^{F4} section 132 of the Administration Act] a direction is given that the sums which are the additional components in the rates of long-term benefits are to be increased by a specified percentage, the Department of Finance^{F5} shall by order provide that the annual rate of an official pension may, if a qualifying condition is satisfied or the pension is a^{F6} derivative or substituted pension or a relevant injury pension], be increased in respect of any period beginning on or after the date on which the direction takes effect—

- (a) if the pension began before the beginning of the base period for that direction, by the same percentage as that specified in the direction;
- (b) if the pension began during the base period, by that percentage multiplied by A/B where A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning of the pension and the end of the base period and B is the number of complete months in the base period.

(2) Where an order is made under this Article in consequence of any such direction as aforesaid the order shall, in addition to the provision required by paragraph (1), authorise the payment of an increase in respect of any lump sum that becomes payable during the base period for that direction, being an increase equal to the percentage specified in the direction multiplied by A/B where—

- (a) A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning date for the lump sum (or, if later, the date from which it was last authorised to be increased by an order under this Article) and the date on which it becomes payable; and
- (b) B is the number of complete months in that base period.

(3) In the case of the first order made under this Article in consequence of any such direction as aforesaid, paragraph (1) shall have effect as if the increase required to be authorised in the case of any pension (whether beginning before or during the base period) were an increase equal to the percentage specified in the direction multiplied by A/B where—

- (a) A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning of the pension (or, if later, the date from which it was last authorised to be increased by an order under section 2 of the Pensions (Increase) Act (Northern Ireland) 1971 (“the Act of 1971”)) and the end of the base period for that direction; and
- (b) B is the number of complete months in that base period.

(4) In the case of the first order so made under this Article, paragraph (2) shall have effect as if—

- (a) for the reference to any lump sum that becomes payable during the base period there were substituted a reference to any lump sum that becomes or has become payable before the end of the base period but after the date from which official pensions were last increased by an order under section 2 of the Act of 1971; and
- (b) the reference in sub-paragraph (a) of the paragraph to the date from which the lump sum was last authorised to be increased were a reference to the date specified in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph.

(5) The increases in the rate of a pension that may be provided for by an order under this Article are to be calculated by reference to the basic rate of the pension as authorised to be increased by section 1 of the Act of 1971 or by any order under section 2 of that Act or this Article; but where—

- ^{F7}(a) a person is entitled to a guaranteed minimum pension^{F8} (as defined in section 176(1) of the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993)] when an order under this Article comes into force; and Status: Point in time view as at 09/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Social Security Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1975 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) entitlement to that guaranteed minimum pension arises from an employment from which (either directly or by virtue of the payment of a transfer credit^{F9}. . .) entitlement to the official pension also arises;

the amount by reference] to which any increase authorised by that or any subsequent order is to be calculated shall be reduced by an amount equal to the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension.

[^{F6}(5ZA) In the application of paragraph (5) in relation to a widow's [^{F10}, widower's or surviving civil partner's] pension in a case where the pensioner becomes entitled on the death of the deceased spouse [^{F11} or civil partner] to such a guaranteed minimum pension as is there mentioned—

- (a) the pensioner shall be treated as having been entitled to that guaranteed minimum pension at all times during the period beginning with the date on which the deceased spouse [^{F12} or civil partner] became entitled to a guaranteed minimum pension and ending with the date of the death;
- (b) the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension to which the pensioner is treated as so entitled at any time during that period [^{F13}(“the relevant time”)] shall be taken to be [^{F14}the rate provided for in paragraph (5ZB);] and
- (c) the amount by reference to which any increase in the widow's [^{F15}, widower's or surviving civil partner's] pension is to be calculated shall, subject to any directions under Article 69A (whether made before or after the coming into operation of this paragraph), be accordingly reduced under that paragraph by an amount equal to the rate, as determined under sub# paragraph (b), of the guaranteed minimum pension to which the pensioner is treated as entitled;

^{F16} ...]

[^{F17}(5ZB) The rate referred to in paragraph (5ZA)(b) is—

- (a) in the case of a widow's pension, one half of the rate of the deceased husband's guaranteed minimum pension at the relevant time;
- (b) in the case of a widower's pension, one half of so much of the rate of the deceased wife's guaranteed minimum pension at the relevant time as is attributable to earnings factors for the tax year 1988–89 and subsequent tax years;
- (c) in the case of a surviving civil partner's pension, one half of so much of the rate of the deceased civil partner's guaranteed minimum pension at the relevant time as is attributable to earnings factors for the tax year 1988–89 and subsequent tax years.

(5ZC) Paragraph (5ZA)—

- (a) does not apply to a widow's or widower's pension in respect of any service of the deceased spouse if the deceased spouse's pension in respect of that service became payable before 24th September 1990;
- (b) applies to a surviving civil partner's pension only in respect of amounts payable after the coming into operation of this paragraph.]

[^{F18}(5A) Nothing in [^{F8} section 106(2) or (3) of, or paragraph 10 of Schedule 5 to, the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993] authorises any deduction from an increase in the rate of an official pension under this Article.]

(6) Any order under this Article shall be laid before the Assembly after being made.

(7) In this Article—

“base period”, in relation to any such direction as is mentioned in paragraph (1), means the period ending with the coming into force of that direction and beginning with the coming into force of the last previous such direction or, if there was none, with [^{F7} 13th November 1978 (date of the relevant order under section 120 of the principal Act, increasing rates of benefit)];

Changes to legislation: Social Security Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1975 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“beginning date”, in relation to a lump sum, shall be construed in accordance with sections 8(2) and 9(2)(a) of the Act of 1971;

[^{F8}“employment” has the same meaning as in section 176(1) of the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993]

“lump sum” includes an instalment of a lump sum;

[^{F6}“widower's pension” means a pension payable in respect of the services of the pensioner's deceased wife;]

and this Article [^{F19} and Article 69A] and the Act of 1971 shall have effect as if this Article [^{F19} and Article 69A] were contained in Part I of that Act.

^{F20}(8) Where, for the purposes of this Article, it is necessary to calculate the number of complete months in any period an incomplete month shall be treated as a complete month if it consists of at least 16 days.]

Modification of effect of Article 69(5) N.I.

^{F21}69A.—(1) This Article applies where the amount by reference to which an increase in an official pension is to be calculated would, but for the provisions of this Article, be reduced under Article 69(5) by an amount equal to the rate of a guaranteed minimum pension.

(2) The Department of the Civil Service may direct that in such cases or classes of case as may be specified in the direction—

(a) no such reduction shall be made; or

(b) the reduction shall be of an amount less than the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension; and in any case to which such a direction applies the increase shall, in respect of such period or periods as may be specified in the direction be calculated in accordance with the direction, notwithstanding Article 69(5).

[^{F22}(2A) Where in any tax year[^{F23} as defined in section 176(1) of the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993]

(a) an increase is calculated in accordance with a direction under this Article; and

(b) the amount by reference to which the increase is calculated, or any part of it, is increased in that tax year under[^{F23} section 105(1) of the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993].

the increase calculated in accordance with the direction shall be reduced by the amount of the increase under[^{F23} that section].]

(3) A direction under this Article may provide that where it has applied in any case and ceases to apply in that case, the rate of the official pension for any period following the date on which the direction ceases to apply shall, in such circumstances as may be specified in the direction, be calculated as if the direction had never applied.

(4) A direction under this Article may provide that the rate of an official pension shall, in such circumstances as may be specified in the direction, be calculated as if the direction had been in force at all times during such period as may be so specified.

(5) A direction made under paragraph (2) may be varied or revoked by a subsequent direction.]
