Treatment of Offenders (Northern Ireland) Order 1976

PART II

DISCHARGE FROM PRISON, ETC.

Conviction within certain period after discharge from prison, etc.

3.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where—

- (a) after a person is discharged from prison or a young offenders centre after the commencement of this Part in pursuance of prison rules, but before any sentence of imprisonment or term of detention to which he was subject immediately before his discharge would (but for that discharge) have expired, he commits, and is convicted of, an offence in Northern Ireland; and the court may, without prejudice to its powers to deal with him in respect of the offence, order that he be returned to prison or, where appropriate, to a young offenders centre for such period, not exceeding that referred to in paragraph (3), as it thinks fit and, where it is a magistrates' court, exercise the powers conferred by paragraph (4).

[<sup>F1</sup>(b) the offence is punishable with imprisonment in the case of a person aged twenty-one years or over,]

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any person unless, immediately before his discharge from prison or a young offenders centre, the sentence of imprisonment or term of detention which he was serving (as pronounced by the court) exceeded one year or such other period as the Secretary of State may prescribe by order.

(3) The period referred to in paragraph (1) is—

- (a) where the court is a magistrates' court, the lesser of—
  - (i) twelve months; or
  - (ii) the period between the date of the order referred to in paragraph (1) and the date on which any sentence of imprisonment or term of detention so referred to would have expired in his case but for his discharge in pursuance of prison rules;
- (b) where the court is not a magistrates' court, the period referred to in sub-paragraph (a)(ii).

(4) Where, at the date on which a magistrates' court convicts an offender, the period [<sup>F2</sup> between that date and the date on which any sentence of imprisonment or term of detention referred to in paragraph (1) would have expired in his case but for his discharge in pursuance of prison rules] exceeds twelve months, the court may, without prejudice to its powers to deal with him in respect of the offence, commit him in custody or on bail to [<sup>F3</sup> the Crown Court].

(5) Where a person is committed [<sup>F3</sup> under paragraph (4), the Crown Court] may, without prejudice to any sentence passed or order made by the magistrates' court in respect of the offence, order that he be returned to prison or, where appropriate, to a young offenders centre for such period, not exceeding that referred to in paragraph (3)(a)(ii), as it thinks fit.

Para.(6) rep. by 1978 c.23

Changes to legislation: *Treatment of Offenders (Northern Ireland) Order 1976, Section 3 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. (7) Where, on consideration of the case of an offender under this Article, a court makes no order with respect to his return to prison or a young offenders centre, the appropriate officer of the court shall record that fact.

(8) Where, under paragraph (1) or (5), a person is ordered to be returned to prison or a young offenders centre, the period for which he is ordered to be returned to prison or a young offenders centre under that paragraph shall, notwithstanding anything in any other enactment, take effect on the date of the order.

(9) A magistrates' court shall not exercise the powers conferred by paragraph (1) unless the offender is before the court.

(10) For the purposes of the Prison Act (Northern Ireland) 1953 and of the Treatment of Offenders Act (Northern Ireland) 1968, the period for which a person is ordered under this Article to be returned to prison or a young offenders centre shall be taken to be a sentence of imprisonment or term of detention.
