1981 No. 156

Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1981

PART V

LAND ACQUISITION AND COMPENSATION

CHAPTER II

LAND COMPENSATION MATTERS

Allowances to retail shopkeepers

98. Where, as a result of action taken by the Executive in relation to clearance areas or re-development areas, the population of the locality concerned is materially decreased, the Executive may pay to any person carrying on a retail shop in that locality such reasonable allowance as it considers fit towards any loss involving personal hardship which in its opinion he will thereby sustain, but, in estimating any such loss, it shall have regard to the probable future development of that locality.
