1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the General Consumer Council (Northern Ireland) Order 1984.

(2) This Article, Articles 2 and 3 and Schedule 1 shall come into operation on the fourteenth day after the day on which this Order is made and the remaining provisions of this Order shall come into operation on 1st April 1985.

Interpretation N.I.

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 shall apply to Article 1 and the following provisions of this Order as it applies to a Measure of the Northern Ireland Assembly.

(2) In this Order—

“the Council” means the General Consumer Council for Northern Ireland;

“the Department” means the Department of Economic Development.

Establishment of General Consumer Council for Northern Ireland N.I.

3.—(1) There shall be established a body to be called the General Consumer Council for Northern Ireland.

(2) Schedule 1 shall have effect in relation to the Council.

General functions of the Council N.I.

4.—(1) The functions of the Council shall be—

(a) to promote and safeguard the interests of consumers in Northern Ireland;

(b) without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (a), to exercise such specific functions as are conferred on it by Articles 5,^{F1} . . . and 7.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), in the exercise of its functions under this Order, the Council may—

(a) consider any complaint made to it relating to consumer affairs and, where it appears to the Council to be appropriate having regard to any other remedy which may be available to the complainant, investigate the complaint and take such further action in relation thereto as the Council may determine;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The General Consumer Council (Northern Ireland) Order 1984. (See end of Document for details)

Functions of the Council in relation to agricultural marketing schemes N.I.

7.—(1) The Council shall consider and report to the Head of the Department of Agriculture on any complaints made to the Council as to the effect of any agricultural marketing scheme which is for the time being in force under Part II of the 1982 Order on consumers of the regulated product.

(2) The Council shall consider and, where it appears to it to be desirable, report to the Head of the Department of Agriculture on the effect of any such scheme on consumers of the regulated product.

(3) The Council may be brought into consultation under Article 24(1) of the 1982 Order by the Milk Marketing Board for Northern Ireland.

(4) The Milk Marketing Board for Northern Ireland shall, before exercising any powers conferred on it by a scheme under Part II of the 1982 Order for regulating in any respect the price at which or the terms on which the regulated product, or any description or quantity thereof, may be sold by a registered producer, give to the Council a written notice that it is considering whether, and if so how, to exercise those powers and shall give to the Council an opportunity of making representations in the matter and consider any representations made in the matter by the Council.

(5) In this Article—

“the 1982 Order” means the Agricultural Marketing (Northern Ireland) Order 1982;

“consumers of the regulated product” means persons who purchase that product, or goods produced wholly or partly therefrom, for their own consumption or use and does not include persons who purchase that product, or such goods as aforesaid, for the purpose of any trade or industry carried on by them;

and expressions used in this Article and in Part II of the 1982 Order have the same meaning in this Article as in that Part.

(2) The Council shall not be regarded as the servant or agent of the Crown or as enjoying any status, privilege or immunity of the Crown and the Council's property shall not be regarded as property of, or property held on behalf of, the Crown.

Appointment and tenure of office of members

2.—(1) The Council shall be appointed by the Head of the Department and shall consist of—

- (a) a chairman;
- (b) a deputy chairman; and
- (c) not more than sixteen other members.

(2) Before making any appointment under sub-paragraph (1)(c) the Head of the Department shall consult with such bodies as he considers appropriate.

(3) The Department may by order subject to negative resolution amend sub-paragraph (1)(c) so as to substitute for the number of other members there mentioned such other number as is specified in the order.

3.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) to (6), a member of the Council shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of his appointment.

(2) A member may resign his office by giving to the Head of the Department a signed notice in writing to that effect.

(3) The Head of the Department may by notice in writing remove a member from office.

(4) A member who ceases to hold office shall be eligible for re-appointment to the Council.

(5) Where a member becomes or ceases to be the chairman or deputy chairman the Head of the Department may vary the terms of the instrument appointing him a member.

(6) If the chairman or deputy chairman ceases to be a member he shall cease to be chairman or deputy chairman as the case may be.

4. The Department may appoint a person in relation to the Council and any group established by the Council under paragraph 10 and a person so appointed shall be entitled to receive notice of, and to attend and speak at, meetings of the Council and of such groups, but shall not be entitled to vote at any such meeting.

Remuneration and allowances of members

5. The Council may pay—

- (a) to the chairman and deputy chairman of the Council such remuneration, allowances and expenses; and
- (b) to the other members of the Council and the members of groups appointed under paragraph 10(4) such allowances and expenses, as the Department may, with the consent of the Department of Finance and Personnel, determine.

Disqualification for the Assembly

6. In Part III of Schedule 1 to the Northern Ireland Assembly Disqualification Act 1975 there shall be inserted at the appropriate place in alphabetical order—

“Chairman and deputy chairman of the General Consumer Council for Northern Ireland”.

Staff

7.—(1) The Council may employ such officers and servants on such terms and conditions as the Council may, with the approval of the Department and the Department of Finance and Personnel, determine.

(2) The Council may, in accordance with arrangements determined by the Department with the approval of the Department of Finance and Personnel, make provision for the payment on death or retirement of pensions, gratuities or other like benefits to or in respect of officers and servants of the Council.

Proceedings

8.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the arrangements relating to meetings of the Council shall be such as the Council may determine.

(2) The quorum of the Council shall be determined by the Council at a meeting of not less than eight members of the Council, including the chairman or deputy chairman.

9. The validity of any proceedings of the Council shall not be affected by any vacancy among the members or by any defect in the appointment of a member.
