The Credit Unions (Northern Ireland) Order 1985

Registration as a credit union

Registration

- 3.—(1) Subject to [^{F1}Article 13] a society may be registered as a credit union under this Order if—
- (a) it is shown to the satisfaction of the registrar that the conditions specified in paragraph (2) are fulfilled;
 - (b) the rules of the society comply with Article 8(1); ^{F2} . . .
 - (c) the place which under those rules is to be the society's registered office is situated in Northern Ireland [^{F3};
 - [^{F4}(d) the society has made an application to the Authority for a permission under Part 4 of the 2000 Act to accept deposits; and
 - (e) the Authority has confirmed to the registrar that the Authority is satisfied that, once registered under this Order, the society will satisfy, and continue to satisfy, the threshold conditions set out in Schedule 6 to the 2000 Act in relation to the regulated activity of accepting deposits.]
- (2) The conditions referred to in paragraph (1)(a) are—
- (a) that the objects of the society are those, and only those, of a credit union; and
 - (b) that admission to membership of the society is restricted to persons each of whom has, in relation to all the other members, not less than one common bond.
- (3) The objects of a credit union are—
- (a) the promotion of thrift among its members by the accumulation of their savings;
 - (b) the creation of sources of credit for the benefit of its members at a fair and reasonable rate of interest;
 - (c) the use and control of members' savings for their mutual benefit; and
 - (d) the training and education of members in the wise use of money and in the management of their financial affairs.
- (4) A common bond for the purpose of paragraph (2)(b) is—
- (a) following a particular occupation;
 - (b) residing or being employed in a particular locality;
 - (c) being employed by a particular employer;
 - (d) being a member of a bona fide organisation or being otherwise associated with other members of the society for a purpose other than that of forming a society to be registered as a credit union;
 - (e) any other common bond approved by the registrar.
- (5) In ascertaining whether a common bond exists between the members of a society, the registrar—

Supplementary provisions as to registration

4.—(1) An application for the registration of a society under this Order shall be signed by 21 members and the secretary of the society and shall be sent with 2 printed copies of the society's rules to the registrar.

(2) On being satisfied that a society has complied with the provisions of this Order as to registration the registrar shall issue to the credit union an acknowledgement of registration in the prescribed form which shall be conclusive evidence that the credit union is duly registered under this Order unless it is proved that the registration of the credit union has been cancelled or is for the time being suspended.

[^{F6}(2A) The registrar must not issue an acknowledgement of registration under paragraph (2) unless the Authority has confirmed to the registrar that it proposes to give the society permission under Part 4 of the 2000 Act to accept deposits.]

(3) A society whose objects are wholly or substantially those of a credit union within the meaning of Article 3(3) shall not be registered otherwise than as a credit union under this Order and any such registration shall be void.

limited liability; and that registration shall rest in the credit union all property for the time being vested in any person in trust for the credit union and all legal proceedings pending by or against the trustees of the credit union may be brought or continued by or against the credit union in its registered name.

Use of name “ credit union ”, etc.

6.—(1) A credit union shall not be registered under this Order under a name which in the opinion of the registrar is undesirable.

(2) The name of every credit union shall contain the words “credit union” and the word “Limited” shall be the last word in that name.

(3) Every credit union shall cause its registered name to be painted or affixed, and to be kept painted or affixed, in a conspicuous position and in letters easily legible, on the outside of its registered office and every other office or place in which the business of the credit union is carried on, and shall have that name engraven in legible characters on its seal and set out in legible characters—

- (a) in all notices, advertisements and other official publications of the credit union;
- (b) in all business letters of the credit union;
- (c) in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, endorsements, cheques, and orders for money or goods, purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the credit union;
- (d) in all bills, invoices, receipts, and letters of credit of the credit union.

(4) Any officer of a credit union, or any other person acting on a credit union's behalf, who—

- (a) uses any seal purporting to be a seal of the credit union which does not have the credit union's registered name engraven on it in legible characters; or
- (b) issues or authorises the issue of any document such as is mentioned in paragraph (3) (a) or (d) in which that name is not set out in legible characters; or
- (c) signs or authorises to be signed on behalf of the credit union any document such as is mentioned in paragraph (3)(c) in which that name is not so set out, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, in the case of a conviction by virtue of sub-paragraph (c), shall further be personally liable to the holder of any such document as is referred to in that sub-paragraph for the amount specified in the document unless that amount is duly paid by the credit union.

(5) Subject to paragraph (6), a person shall not, unless registered as a credit union,—

- (a) use, in reference to himself, a name, title or descriptive expression containing the words “credit union” or any cognate term or any derivative of those words; or
- (b) represent himself as being a credit union;

and any person who contravenes this paragraph shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.

(6) Paragraph (5) does not apply to—

- (a) the use by an officer or employee of a credit union of a title or descriptive expression indicating his office or post with the credit union; or
- (b) the use with reference to an association or group of credit unions of a name which has been approved in writing by the registrar.

Change of name

7.—(1) A credit union may change its name in the following manner and in that manner only, that is to say—
