(b) that the person who made it does not give oral evidence through fear or because he is kept out of the way.

(4) Paragraph (1) does not render admissible a confession made by an accused person that would not otherwise be admissible in law.

Business etc. documents

4.—(1) Subject—

⁽³⁾ 1954 c. 33 (N.I.)

⁽⁴⁾ 1980 c. 47

(a) to paragraphs (3) and (4); and
(b) to paragraph 2A of Schedule 1 to the Criminal Appeal (Northern Ireland) Act 1980⁽⁵⁾, a statement in a document shall be admissible in criminal proceedings as evidence of any fact of which direct oral evidence would be admissible, if the following conditions are satisfied—

- (i) the document was created or received by a person in the course of a trade, business, profession or other occupation, or as the holder of a paid or unpaid office; and
- (ii) the information contained in the document was supplied by a person (whether or not the maker of the statement) who had, or may reasonably be supposed to have had, personal knowledge of the matters dealt with.

(2) Paragraph (1) applies whether the information contained in the document was supplied directly or indirectly but, if it was supplied indirectly, only if each person through whom it was supplied received it—

- (a) in the course of a trade, business, profession or other occupation; or
- (b) as the holder of a paid or unpaid office.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not render admissible a confession made by an accused person that would not otherwise be admissible in law.

(4) A statement prepared otherwise than in accordance with Article 9 or an order under paragraph 6 of Schedule 13 to the Criminal Justice Act 1988⁽⁶⁾ or under Article 10 or 11 for the purposes—

- (a) of pending or contemplated criminal proceedings; or
- (b) of a criminal investigation, shall not be admissible by virtue of paragraph (1) unless—

- (i) the requirements of one of the sub-paragraphs of paragraph (2) of Article 3 are satisfied; or
- (ii) the requirements of paragraph (3) of that Article are satisfied; or
- (iii) the person who made the statement cannot reasonably be expected (having regard to the time which has elapsed since he made the statement and to all the circumstances) to have any recollection of the matters dealt with in the statement.

Principles to be followed by the court

5.—(1) If, having regard to all the circumstances—

- (a) the Crown Court—
 - (i) on a trial on indictment; or
 - (ii) on the hearing of an application under Article 5 of the Criminal Justice (Serious Fraud) (Northern Ireland) Order 1988 (application for dismissal of charges of fraud transferred from magistrates' court to Crown Court); or
- (b) the Court of Appeal; or
- (c) the county court on an appeal from a magistrates' court; or
- (d) a magistrates' court in summary proceedings within the meaning of Article 2(3) of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981⁽⁷⁾, is of the opinion that in the interests of justice a statement which is admissible by virtue of Article 3 or 4 nevertheless ought not to be admitted, it may direct that the statement shall not be admitted.

(5) 1980 c. 47
(6) 1988 c. 33
(7) 1981 NI 26

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), it shall be the duty of the court to have regard—

- (a) to the nature and source of the document containing the statement and to whether or not, having regard to its nature and source and to any other circumstances that appear to the court to be relevant, it is likely that the document is authentic;
- (b) to the extent to which the statement appears to supply evidence which would otherwise not be readily available;
- (c) to the relevance of the evidence that it appears to supply to any issue which is likely to have to be determined in the proceedings; and
- (d) to any risk, having regard in particular to whether it is likely to be possible to controvert the statement if the person making it does not attend to give oral evidence in the proceedings, that its admission or exclusion will result in unfairness to the accused or, if there is more than one, to any of them.

Statements in documents that appear to have been prepared for purposes of criminal proceedings or investigations

6. Where a statement which is admissible in criminal proceedings by virtue of Article 3 or 4 appears to the court to have been prepared, otherwise than in accordance with Article 9 or an order under paragraph 6 of Schedule 13 to the Criminal Justice Act 1988(8) or under Article 10 or 11, for the purposes—

- (a) of pending or contemplated criminal proceedings; or
- (b) of a criminal investigation,

the statement shall not be given in evidence in any criminal proceedings without the leave of the court, and the court shall not give leave unless it is of the opinion that the statement ought to be admitted in the interests of justice; and in considering whether its admission would be in the interests of justice, it shall be the duty of the court to have regard—

- (i) to the contents of the statement;
- (ii) to any risk, having regard in particular to whether it is likely to be possible to controvert the statement if the person making it does not attend to give oral evidence in the proceedings, that its admission or exclusion will result in unfairness to the accused or, if there is more than one, to any of them; and
- (iii) to any other circumstances that appear to the court to be relevant.

Proof of statements contained in documents

7. Where a statement contained in a document is admissible as evidence in criminal proceedings, it may be proved—

- (a) by the production of that document; or
- (b) (whether or not that document is still in existence) by the production of a copy of that document, or of the material part of it, authenticated in such manner as the court may approve; and it is immaterial for the purposes of this Article how many removes there are between a copy and the original.

Documentary evidence—supplementary

8.—(1) Nothing in this Part shall prejudice—

- (a) the admissibility of a statement not made by a person while giving oral evidence in court which is admissible otherwise than by virtue of this Part; or
 - (b) any power of a court to exclude at its discretion a statement admissible by virtue of this Part.
- (2) Schedule 1 shall have effect for the purpose of supplementing this Part.

PART III

Issue of letters of request

9.—(1) Where on an application made in accordance with the following provisions of this Article it appears to a resident magistrate or judge that criminal proceedings—

- (a) have been instituted; or
- (b) are likely to be instituted if evidence is obtained for the purpose, he may order that a letter of request shall be issued to a court or tribunal or appropriate authority specified in the order and exercising jurisdiction in a place outside the United Kingdom, requesting it to assist in obtaining for the purposes of the proceedings evidence specified in the letter.

(2) In paragraph (1) “appropriate authority” means any central authority designated by a state to receive requests for assistance in legal matters.

(3) An application for an order under this Article may be made by a prosecuting authority.

may make such provision as appears to the authority making any of them to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Article and in particular for the appointment of a person before whom evidence may be taken in pursuance of a letter of request.

(6) In exercising the discretion conferred by Article 5 in relation to a statement contained in evidence taken in pursuance of a letter of request, the court shall have regard—

- (a) to whether it was possible to challenge the statement by questioning the person who made it; and
- (b) to whether the local law allowed the parties to the criminal proceedings to be legally represented when the evidence was being taken.

Expert reports

10.—(1) An expert report shall be admissible as evidence in criminal proceedings, whether or not the person making it attends to give oral evidence in those proceedings.

(2) If it is proposed that the person making the report shall not give oral evidence, the report shall only be admissible with the leave of the court.

- (3) For the purpose of determining whether to give leave the court shall have regard—
- (a) to the contents of the report;
 - (b) to the reasons why it is proposed that the person making the report shall not give oral evidence;
 - (c) to any risk, having regard in particular to whether it is likely to be possible to controvert statements in the report if the person making it does not attend to give oral evidence in the proceedings, that its admission or exclusion will result in unfairness to the accused or, if there is more than one, to any of them; and
 - (d) to any other circumstances that appear to the court to be relevant.
- (4) An expert report, when admitted, shall be evidence of any fact or opinion of which the person making it could have given oral evidence.
- (5) In this Article “expert report” means a written report by a person dealing wholly or mainly with matters on which he is (or would if living be) qualified to give expert evidence.

Form of evidence and glossaries

11. For the purpose of helping members of juries to understand complicated issues of fact or technical terms Crown Court rules may make provision—

- (a) as to the furnishing of evidence in any form, notwithstanding the existence of admissible material from which the evidence to be given in that form would be derived; and
- (b) as to the furnishing of glossaries for such purposes as may be specified;

in any case where the court gives leave for, or requires, evidence or a glossary to be so furnished.

- (b) where the prosecution requires the attendance of the child for the purpose of establishing the identity of any person; or
- (c) where the court is satisfied that it has not been possible to obtain from the child a statement that may be given in evidence under this section; or
- (d) where the investigation into the offence takes place after the court has discontinued to try it summarily and the child has given evidence in the summary trial.

(4) Where in the course of a preliminary investigation into an offence to which this section applies, a resident magistrate decides under Article 45 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 to deal with the offence summarily, a statement admitted in pursuance of this section shall not be deemed to be evidence of the matters to which it relates.

(5) In this section “sexual offence” means any offence under any of the following provisions, namely—

Abolition of requirement of corroboration for unsworn evidence of children

13.—(1) Subsection (2) of section 57 of the Children and Young Persons Act (Northern Ireland) 1968⁽¹⁰⁾ (under which, where the unsworn evidence of a child of tender years admitted by virtue of that section is given on behalf of the prosecution, the accused is not liable to be convicted unless that evidence is corroborated by some other material evidence in support thereof implicating him) shall cease to have effect.

(2) Any requirement whereby at a trial on indictment it is obligatory for the court to give the jury a warning about convicting the accused on the uncorroborated evidence of a child is abrogated in relation to cases where such a warning is required by reason only that the evidence is the evidence of a child.
