Confiscation orders

Confiscation of proceeds of offences other than drug trafficking offences

4.—(1) The Crown Court and a court of summary jurisdiction shall each have power, in addition to dealing with an offender in any other way, to make an order (a confiscation order) requiring him to pay such amount as the court thinks fit, being an amount which must be at least the minimum amount, but must not exceed—

- (a) the benefit in respect of which it is made; or
- (b) the amount appearing to the court to be the amount that might be realised at the time the order is made, whichever is the less.
- (2) The Crown Court may make such an order against an offender where—
- (a) he is convicted of any offence to which this Order applies other than a drug trafficking offence; and
- (b) it is satisfied—

- (i) that he has benefited from that offence or from that offence taken together with some other offence of which he is convicted in the same proceedings, or which the Court takes into consideration in determining his sentence, and which is not a drug trafficking offence; and
 - (ii) that his benefit is at least the minimum amount.
- (3) A court of summary jurisdiction may make such an order against an offender where—
 - (a) he is convicted of an offence listed in Schedule 1; and
 - (b) it is satisfied—
 - (i) that he has benefited from that offence or from that offence taken together with some other offence listed in Schedule 1 of which he is convicted in the same proceedings, or which the court takes into consideration in determining his sentence; and
 - (ii) that his benefit is at least the minimum amount.
- (4) For the purposes of this Order a person benefits from an offence if he obtains property as a result of or in connection with its commission and his benefit is the value of property so obtained.
- (5) Where a person derives a pecuniary advantage as a result of or in connection with the commission of an offence, he is to be treated for the purposes of this Order as if he had obtained as a result of or in connection with the commission of the offence a sum of money equal to the value of the pecuniary advantage.
- (6) A court shall not make a confiscation order under this Article unless the prosecution has given written notice to the court to the effect that it appears to the prosecution that, were the court to consider that it ought to make such an order, it would be able to make an order requiring the offender to pay at least the minimum amount.
- (7) If the prosecution gives the court such a notice, the court shall determine whether it ought to make a confiscation order under this Article.
- (8) When considering whether to make a confiscation order under this Article the court may take into account any information that has been placed before it showing that a victim of an offence to which the proceedings relate has instituted, or intends to institute, civil proceedings against the defendant in respect of loss, injury or damage sustained in connection with the offence.
- (9) If the court determines that it ought to make such an order, the court shall, subject to Article 7, before sentencing or otherwise dealing with the defendant in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned, determine the amount to be recovered in his case by virtue of this Article and make a confiscation order for that amount, specifying the offence or offences.
- (10) For the purposes of this Order the minimum amount is £10,000 or such other amount as the Secretary of State may specify by order.
- (11) An order under paragraph (10) shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament in like manner as a statutory instrument and section 5 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 shall apply accordingly.

Confiscation of proceeds of drug trafficking

- 5.—(1) Where a person is convicted in the Crown Court of one or more drug trafficking offences and the Court determines that he has benefited from drug trafficking the Court shall, subject to Article 7, before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or, as the case may be, any of the offences concerned, make an order (a confiscation order) requiring him to pay—
- (a) subject to sub-paragraph (b), the amount the Court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking; or

- (b) if the Court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made is less than the amount the Court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking, the amount that might be so realised.

(2) For the purposes of this Order, a person who has at any time (whether before or after the coming into operation of this Article) received any payment or other reward in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another has benefited from drug trafficking.

Assessing the proceeds of drug trafficking

6.—(1) For the purposes of this Order—

- (a) any payments or other rewards received by a person at any time (whether before or after the coming into operation of Article 5) in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another are his proceeds of drug trafficking, and
- (b) the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking is the aggregate of the values of the payments or other rewards.

(2) The Crown Court may, for the purpose of determining whether the defendant has benefited from drug trafficking and, if he has, of assessing the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking, make the following assumptions, except to the extent that any of the assumptions are shown to be incorrect in the defendant's case—

- (a) that any property appearing to the Court—
 - (i) to have been held by him at any time since his conviction, or
 - (ii) to have been transferred to him at any time since the beginning of the period of 6 years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him, was received by him, at the earliest time at which he appears to the Court to have held it, as a payment or reward in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him,
- (b) that any expenditure of his since the beginning of that period was met out of payments received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him, and
- (c) that, for the purpose of valuing any property received or assumed to have been received by him at any time as such a reward, he received the property free of any other interests in it.

(3) Paragraph (2) does not apply if the only drug trafficking offence in respect of which the defendant appears before the Court to be sentenced is an offence under Article 29 or 30.

(4) For the purpose of assessing the value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking in a case where a confiscation order has previously been made against him, the Court shall leave out of account any of his proceeds of drug trafficking that are shown to the Court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered under that order.

(5) References in paragraph (4) to a confiscation order include a confiscation order within the meaning of the Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1986 or Part I of the Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 1987.

Postponed confiscation orders

7.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a court, if it considers that it requires further information before making a confiscation order, may, subject to paragraph (3), postpone making such an order for a period not exceeding 6 months after the date of conviction for the purpose of enabling that information to be obtained; but, without prejudice to Article 50 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 and Article 11 of the Treatment of Offenders (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, may notwithstanding such postponement proceed to sentence or to otherwise deal with the person in respect of the conviction.

(2) A court shall not impose any fine or make an order such as is mentioned in Article 8(1)(b) or (c) before a confiscation order is made.

(3) If during the period of postponement notice of appeal or of application for leave to appeal is given under section 16(1) of the Criminal Appeal (Northern Ireland) Act 1980 or, as the case may be, Article 144(1) of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981, the court may, on the application of the prosecution, extend that period to a date up to 3 months after the date of the determination of the appeal.

(2) No statutory provision restricting the power of a court dealing with an offender in a particular way from dealing with him also in any other way shall by reason only of the making of a confiscation order restrict the court from dealing with an offender in any way it considers appropriate in respect of an offence to which this Order applies.

(3) Where—

- (a) a court makes both a confiscation order and an order for the payment of compensation under Article 3 of the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 1980 against the same person in the same proceedings; and
- (b) it appears to the court that he will not have sufficient means to satisfy both the orders in full, it shall direct that so much of the compensation as will not in its opinion be recoverable because of the insufficiency of his means shall be paid out of any sums recovered under the confiscation order.

Statements, etc., relevant to making confiscation orders

- (7) If the court is satisfied as to any matter relevant for determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made (whether by an acceptance under this Article or otherwise), the court may issue a certificate giving the court's opinion as to the matters concerned and shall do so if satisfied that the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made is less than the amount the court assesses to be the value of the defendant's benefit from the offence or, if more than one, all the offences in respect of which the order may be made, or as the case may be, the defendant's proceeds from drug trafficking.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) may be made either by the prosecution or by a receiver appointed under this Order in relation to the realisable property of the person mentioned in that paragraph.

- (a) substitute for the amount to be recovered under the order such amount (not exceeding the amount of the benefit in respect of which it is made or, as the case may be, the amount assessed as the value of the proceeds of drug trafficking) as appears to the Court to be appropriate having regard to the amount now shown to be realisable; and
- (b) increase the term of imprisonment or detention fixed in respect of the order under section 35(1)(c) of the Criminal Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 1945 (imprisonment in default of payment) if the effect of the substitution under sub-paragraph (a) is to increase the maximum period applicable in relation to the order under subsection (2) of that section as it has effect by virtue of Article 10(1)(b).

(5) A court of summary jurisdiction may, on an application under paragraph (3), substitute for the amount to be recovered under the order such amount (not exceeding the amount of the benefit in respect of which it is made) as appears to the court to be appropriate having regard to the amount now shown to be realisable.

Application of proceeds of realisation and other sums

- (b) in such proportions, as the High Court may direct after giving reasonable opportunity for such persons to make representations to the Court.

(a) the person entitled to the compensation shall be liable to pay into the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom such an amount as bears to the remuneration or expenses the same proportion as the amount payable in accordance with the direction under Article 8(3) bears to the total amount payable under the confiscation order;

(b) the proper officer shall deduct from the amount falling to be applied in payment of the compensation an amount equal to the amount of any liability arising by virtue of sub-paragraph (a);

(c) notwithstanding the deduction under sub-paragraph (b), the person entitled to compensation shall be treated as having received the whole of the amount which falls to be applied in payment of it; and

(d) the amount deducted shall be treated as a fine for the purposes of section 20 of the Administration of Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 1954.

(10) In this Article “the proper officer” means, where the confiscation order is made by a court of summary jurisdiction, the clerk of petty sessions and, where the confiscation order is made by the Crown Court, the appropriate officer of the Crown Court.

20.—(1) If, on an application by the defendant in respect of a confiscation order, the High Court is satisfied that the realisable property is inadequate for the payment of any amount remaining to be recovered under the order the Court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving the Court's reasons.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)—

- (a) in the case of realisable property held by a person who has been adjudged bankrupt the Court shall take into account the extent to which any property held by him may be distributed among creditors; and

(3) Where a certificate has been issued under paragraph (1), the defendant may apply—

- (a) where the confiscation order was made by the Crown Court, to that Court; and

 - (ii) to the circumstances under which the person in possession of the material holds it, that the material should be produced or that access to it should be given.

(4) An order under paragraph (1) shall not require the production of any material unless it appears to the High Court that the material is likely to contain information that would facilitate the exercise of the powers conferred on the Court by Articles 13 to 16 or on a receiver appointed under Article 13 or 16 or in pursuance of a charging order.

(5) The High Court may by order authorise the disclosure to such a receiver of any material produced under paragraph (1) or any part of such material; but the Court shall not make an order
