The Tourism (Northern Ireland) Order 1992

PART IV

REGULATION OF TOURIST ACCOMMODATION

[^{F1}Revocation of certificate following failure to submit return under Article 14A

17A.—(1) Where the proprietor of a certified tourist establishment fails to comply with a notice served on him under Article 14A(1), the Board shall issue and serve on the proprietor a notice revoking the certificate in force in relation to that establishment.

(2) A notice under paragraph (1)—

- (a) shall be in the prescribed form;
- (b) shall specify the date (not being less than 30 days from the date on which the notice is issued) on which the certificate shall be revoked;
- (c) shall draw the proprietor's attention to the effect of Articles 14, 18 and 19.

(3) A notice under paragraph (1) shall, unless rescinded under Article 18 or quashed under Article 19, have effect to revoke a certificate on the date specified in the notice in accordance with paragraph (2)(b) notwithstanding that on that date a review of the issue of that notice is pending under Article 18 or an appeal against the notice is pending under Article 19.]
