The Industrial Tribunals (Northern Ireland) Order 1996

Appeals from industrial tribunals

Appeals from industrial tribunals

22.—(1) A party to proceedings before an industrial tribunal who is dissatisfied in point of law with a decision of the tribunal may, according as rules of court may provide, either—

- (a) appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeal, or
- (b) require the tribunal to state and sign a case for the opinion of the Court of Appeal.

(2) Rules of court may provide for authorising or requiring the tribunal to state, in the form of a special case for the decision of the Court of Appeal, any question of law arising in the proceedings.

Changes to legislation:

The Industrial Tribunals (Northern Ireland) Order 1996, Cross Heading: Appeals from industrial tribunals is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations.
