The Road Traffic (New Drivers) (Northern Ireland) Order 1998

Revocation of licences and re-testing

Surrender of licences

- 4.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies where—
- (a) a person is the holder of a licence;
 - (b) he is convicted of an offence involving obligatory endorsement;
 - (c) the penalty points to be taken into account under Article 31 of the Offenders Order on that occasion number 6 or more;
 - (d) the court makes an order falling within Article 49(1)(b) of that Order in respect of the offence;
 - (e) the person's licence shows the date on which he became a qualified driver, or that date has been shown by other evidence in the proceedings; and
 - (f) it appears to the court, in the light of the order and the date so shown, that the offence was committed during the person's probationary period.
- (2) Where this paragraph applies, the court shall send to the Department—
- (a) a notice containing the particulars required to be endorsed on the counterpart of the person's licence in accordance with the order referred to in paragraph (1)(d); and
 - (b) on their production to the court, the person's licence and its counterpart.
- (3) Paragraph (4) applies where—
- (a) a person's licence and its counterpart have been sent to the fixed penalty clerk under Article 60(7) of the Offenders Order [^{F1}, retained by a vehicle examiner under that Article] or delivered to the [^{F2}appropriate person] in response to a conditional offer issued under Article 80 of that Order;
 - (b) the offence to which the fixed penalty notice or the conditional offer relates is one involving obligatory endorsement;
 - (c) the [^{F3}appropriate person] endorses the number of penalty points to be attributed to the offence on the counterpart of the licence;
 - (d) the penalty points to be taken into account by the [^{F3}appropriate person] in respect of the offence number 6 or more;
 - (e) the licence shows the date on which the person became a qualified driver; and
 - (f) it appears to the [^{F3}appropriate person], in the light of the particulars of the offence endorsed on the counterpart of the licence and the date so shown, that the offence was committed during the person's probationary period.

Re-testing

6.—(1) Subject to paragraph (5) and Article 7, the Department may not under Part II of the Order of 1981 grant a person whose licence has been revoked under^{F16} Article 5] a full licence to drive any class of vehicles in relation to which the revoked licence was issued as a full licence^{F16} or (as the case may be) full Great Britain licence] unless he satisfies the Department that within the relevant period he has passed a relevant driving test.

^{F16}(1A) Subject to paragraph (5), the Department may not under that Part grant a person whose Great Britain licence has been revoked under section 3(1) of the Road Traffic (New Drivers) Act

Changes to legislation: The Road Traffic (New Drivers) (Northern Ireland) Order 1998, Cross Heading: Revocation of licences and re-testing is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 22 August 2023. 1995 a full licence to drive any class of vehicles in relation to which the revoked licence was issued as a full Great Britain licence unless he satisfies the Department as mentioned in paragraph (1).]

(2) In this Article “relevant driving test” means, in relation to a person whose licence has been revoked, any test which—

- (a) falls within sub-paragraph (a) or (b) of Article 3(2); and
- (b) is a test of competence to drive any vehicle included in any class of vehicles in relation to which the revoked licence was issued as a full licence^{F16} or (as the case may be) full Great Britain licence].

(3) If the Department grants a full licence to a person who is required to pass a relevant driving test in order to be granted that licence, the licence granted shall (subject to Articles 9 and 70 to 79A of the Order of 1981) be one authorising that person to drive all the classes of vehicles in relation to which the revoked licence was issued as a full licence^{F16} or (as the case may be) full Great Britain licence].

(4) In paragraph (1) “the relevant period” means the period beginning—

- (a) after the date of the revocation of the licence; and
- (b) not more than 2 years before the date on which the application for the full licence is made.

(5) ^{F16}Paragraphs (1) and (1A) do] not apply to a person whose licence has been revoked under^{F16} Article 5 or whose Great Britain licence has been revoked under section 3(1) of the Road Traffic (New Drivers) Act 1995] if, before he passes a relevant driving test, an order is made in relation to him under Article 41 of the Offenders Order (disqualification until test is passed).

Restoration of licence without re-testing in certain cases

7.—(1) If the Department receives notice that a person whose licence has been revoked under^{F17} Article 5] is appealing against a conviction or endorsement which was the basis or formed part of the basis for the revocation, the Department shall grant that person free of charge a full licence for a period prescribed by regulations made by it,

(2) Regulations under paragraph (1) may in particular prescribe—

- (a) a period expiring when the appeal is finally determined or abandoned; or
- (b) a period expiring on the date on which the revoked licence would have expired if it had not been revoked.

(3) If the regulations prescribe a period other than that mentioned in paragraph (2)(a), a licence granted under paragraph (1) shall be treated as revoked if—

- (a) following the appeal, the penalty points taken into account for the purposes of Article 4^{F17} or (as the case may be) section 2 of the Road Traffic (New Drivers) Act 1995] are not reduced to a number smaller than 6; or
- (b) the appeal is abandoned.

(4) If, in the case of a person whose licence has been revoked under^{F17} Article 5], the Department receives notice that a court—

- (a) has quashed a conviction which was the basis or formed part of the basis for the revocation of the licence;
- (b) has quashed an endorsement which was the basis or formed part of the basis for the revocation of the licence and has not on doing so ordered him to be disqualified; or

- (c) has made an order which has the effect of reducing the penalty points taken into account for the purposes of Article 4^[F17] or (as the case may be) section 2 of the Road Traffic (New Drivers) Act 1995] to a number smaller than 6, then, subject to paragraph (5), the Department shall grant that person free of charge a full licence for a period expiring on the date on which the revoked licence would have expired if it had not been revoked.

(5) Paragraph (4) does not require the Department to grant a licence to a person who has been granted a previous licence which has not been surrendered unless that person provides the Department with an explanation for not surrendering the previous licence that the Department considers adequate.

(6) If, in accordance with paragraph (1) or (4), the Department grants a full licence to a person whose licence has been revoked under^[F17] Article 5], the licence granted shall be one authorising that person to drive all the classes of vehicles in relation to which the revoked licence was issued as a full licence.

(7) Any licence granted in accordance with paragraph (1) or (4) shall have effect for the purposes of the Road Traffic Orders as if it were a licence granted under Part II of the Order of 1981.

(8) The Department, after consultation with the Lord Chancellor, may by regulations make provision for requiring such courts as may be prescribed by the regulations to give notice to the Department—

- (a) that a person whose licence has been or is due to be revoked under Article 5(1) is appealing against a conviction or endorsement which is the basis or forms part of the basis for the revocation;
- (b) as to the final determination of such an appeal;
- (c) that such an appeal has been abandoned.

(9) Regulations under this Article may include such incidental or supplementary provision as appears to the Department to be expedient and shall be subject to negative resolution.

^F17 Nothing in this Article applies in relation to a person whose Great Britain licence has been revoked under Article 5(1).]
