PART III

LIFE SENTENCES

Determination of tariffs

Determination of tariffs

5.—(1) Where a court passes a life sentence, the court shall, unless it makes an order under paragraph (3), order that the release provisions shall apply to the offender in relation to whom the sentence has been passed as soon as he has served the part of his sentence which is specified in the order.

(2) The part of a sentence specified in an order under paragraph (1) shall [^{F11}(subject to Article 5A (serious terrorism cases))] be such part as the court considers appropriate to satisfy the requirements of retribution and deterrence having regard to the seriousness of the offence, or of the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it.

(3) If the court is of the opinion that, because of the seriousness of the offence or of the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it, no order should be made under paragraph (1), the court shall order that, subject to paragraphs (4) and (5), the release provisions shall not apply to the offender.

(4) If, in a case where an order under paragraph (3) is in force, the offender was aged over 18 when he committed the offence, the [F12Department of Justice] may at the appropriate stage direct that the release provisions shall apply to the offender as soon as he has served the part of his sentence which is specified in the direction.

(5) If, in a case where an order under paragraph (3) is in force, the offender was aged under 18 when he committed the offence, the [F12Department of Justice] shall at the appropriate stage direct that the release provisions shall apply to the offender as soon as he has served the part of his sentence which is specified in the direction.

(6) The appropriate stage, for the purposes of paragraphs (4) and (5), is when the [F13Department of Justice] has formed the opinion, having regard to any factors determined [F14by the Department of Justice] to be relevant for the purpose, that it is appropriate [F15for the Department of Justice] to give the direction.

(7) An offence is associated with another for the purposes of this Article if—

- (a) the offender is convicted of it in the proceedings in which he is convicted of the other offence, or (although convicted of it in earlier proceedings) is sentenced for it at the same time as he is sentenced for that offence; or
- (b) the offender admits the commission of it in the proceedings in which he is sentenced for the other offence and requests the court to take it into consideration in sentencing him for that offence.

(8) This Article has effect in relation to life sentences passed after the appointed day.

[F16] Minimum tariff in serious terrorism cases

5A.—(1) If the court makes an order under Article 5(1) in a serious terrorism case, the part of the sentence specified in the order must be at least 14 years.

This is subject to paragraphs (2) to (4).

(2) The court may, to the extent that it considers appropriate in order to take into account a guilty plea in accordance with Article 33(1) of the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 1996, specify a period of less than 14 years but (subject to paragraphs (3) and (4)) no less than 11 years and 73 days.

(3) The court may specify a lesser period than that otherwise required by paragraph (1) or (2) if the court is of the opinion that it is appropriate to do so on taking account of matters under section 73(2) of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (assistance given or offered to investigator or prosecutor).

(4) The court may specify a lesser period than that otherwise required by paragraph (1) or (2) if the court is of the opinion that there are exceptional circumstances which—

- (a) relate to the offence or to the offender; and
- (b) justify the specification of a lesser period.

(5) For the purposes of this Article, a “serious terrorism case” is a case where, if the court did not impose a life sentence or an indeterminate custodial sentence, it would be required by Article 13A of the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2008 to impose a serious terrorism sentence (assuming for this purpose that the court was not of the opinion mentioned in paragraph (2) of that Article).

(6) In paragraph (5), “indeterminate custodial sentence” means a sentence under Article 13(4) of the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2008.]

Release on licence

Duty to release certain life prisoners

6.—(1) In this Order—

- (a) references to a life prisoner to whom this Article applies are references to a life prisoner in respect of whom—
 - (i) an order has been made under paragraph (1) of Article 5; or
 - (ii) a direction under paragraph (4) or (5) of that Article has been given; and
- (b) references to the relevant part of his sentence are references to the part of his sentence specified in the order or direction, and in this Article “appropriate stage”, in relation to such a direction, has the same meaning as in Article 5(6).

(2) But if a life prisoner is serving two or more life sentences—

- (a) he is not to be treated for the purposes of this Order as a life prisoner to whom this Article applies unless such an order or direction has been made or given in respect of each of those sentences or such a direction will be required to be given at the appropriate stage; and
- (b) the release provisions do not apply in relation to him until he has served the relevant part of each of them.

(3) As soon as—

- (a) a life prisoner to whom this Article applies has served the relevant part of his sentence; and
- (b) the Commissioners have directed his release under this Article, it shall be the duty of the [F17Department of Justice] to release him on licence.

(4) The Commissioners shall not give a direction under paragraph (3) with respect to a life prisoner to whom this Article applies unless—

- (a) the [F17Department of Justice] has referred the prisoner's case to the Commissioners; and
- (b) the Commissioners are satisfied that it is no longer necessary for the protection of the public from serious harm that the prisoner should be confined.

(5) A life prisoner to whom this Article applies may require the [^{F17}Department of Justice] to refer his case to the Commissioners at any time—

- (a) after he has served the relevant part of his sentence; and
- (b) where there has been a previous reference of his case to the Commissioners, after the end of the period of two years beginning with the disposal of that reference; and
- (c) where he is also serving a sentence of imprisonment or detention for a term, after the time when, but for his life sentence, he would be entitled to be released, and in this paragraph “previous reference” means a reference under paragraph (4) or Article 9(4).

(6) In determining for the purpose of this Article whether a life prisoner to whom this Article applies has served the relevant part of his sentence, no account shall be taken of any time during which he was unlawfully at large, unless the [^{F17}Department of Justice] otherwise directs.

(7) Where a person has been sentenced to one or more life sentences and to one or more terms of imprisonment or detention, nothing in this Order shall require the [^{F17}Department of Justice] to release the person in respect of any of the life sentences unless and until the [^{F17}Department of Justice] is required to release him in respect of each of the terms.

Power to release life prisoners on compassionate grounds

7.—(1) The [^{F18}Department of Justice] may at any time release a life prisoner on licence if [^{F19}the Department of Justice] is satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist which justify the prisoner's release on compassionate grounds.

(2) Before releasing a life prisoner under paragraph (1), the [^{F20}Department of Justice] shall consult the Commissioners, unless the circumstances are such as to render such consultation impracticable.

[^{F21}(3) The Secretary of State may notify the Department of Justice that a life prisoner is not to be released under this Article without the Secretary of State's agreement; and, if the Secretary of State gives such a notification in relation to a prisoner, the Department of Justice may not release the prisoner under this Article without the Secretary of State's agreement.

(4) But the Secretary of State may—

- (a) give a notification, or
- (b) refuse his agreement to a release, only if his decision to do so is arrived at (wholly or partly) on the basis of protected information.]

(2) The [^{F26}Department of Justice or the] Secretary of State may revoke the licence of any life prisoner and recall him to prison without a recommendation by the Commissioners, where it appears to [^{F27}it or] him that it is expedient in the public interest to recall that person before such a recommendation is practicable.
