The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 2002

Powers of district councils

Powers of district councils in relation to economic development

8.—(1) A district council may promote the economic development of its district.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), a district council may for the purposes of the economic development of its district—

- (a) make payments; and
- (b) acquire, hold and develop land.

(3) The power to acquire land under paragraph (2)(b) includes power to acquire it otherwise than by agreement.

(4) In paragraph (2) “develop”, in relation to land includes—

- (a) erect, alter or extend buildings thereon;
- (b) carry out works thereon;
- (c) provide means of access, services and other facilities for persons using the land;
- (d) facilitate the doing of such things by another person;
- (e) manage and dispose of the land.

(5) In exercising its powers under this Article a district council shall have regard to any guidance for the time being issued under paragraph (6).

(6) The Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment may, after consultation with district councils and other interested bodies or persons, issue guidance as to the exercise by district councils of their powers under this Article.

Powers of district councils in relation to community safety

9.—(1) A district council may—

^{F1}(a)

- (b) take action in accordance with any plan prepared by, or proposals agreed by, [^{F2}a policing and community safety partnership or district policing and community safety partnership established by it];
- (c) accept financial or other support provided by such a partnership; and
- (d) generally assist (whether financially or otherwise) and facilitate such a partnership in the exercise of its functions.

(2) The Department may by order confer or impose on district councils other functions relating to the enhancement of community safety in their districts.

(3) No order shall be made under this Article unless a draft of the order has been laid before and approved by a resolution of the Assembly.

(4) In this Article—
