STATUTORY DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES

PART III

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Meetings

13.—(1) Timing and location of meetings must be reasonable.

(2) Meetings must be conducted in a manner that enables both employer and employee to explain their cases.

(3) In the case of appeal meetings which are not the first meeting, the employer should, as far as is reasonably practicable, be represented by a more senior manager than attended the first meeting (unless the most senior manager attended that meeting).

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Employment (Northern Ireland) Order 2003, Cross Heading: Meetings.
