PART II

LOCAL GOVERNMENT AUDIT

[^{F1}Reports] and recommendations

Publicity for meeting under Article 12

13.—(1) A meeting shall not be held for the purposes of Article 12(3) unless, at least 7 days before the meeting, there has been published, in at least two newspapers circulating in the district, a notice which—

- (a) states the time and place of the meeting,
 - (b) indicates that the meeting is to be held to consider [^{F1}the local government auditor's] report or recommendation (as the case may be), and
 - (c) describes the subject-matter of the report or recommendation.
- (2) The body concerned shall ensure that, as soon as practicable after the meeting—
- (a) the [^{F2}local government auditor] is notified of the decisions made under Article 12(4); and
 - (b) a notice containing a summary of those decisions which has been approved by the [^{F3}local government] auditor is published in at least two newspapers circulating in that body's district.
- (3) The notice required by paragraph (2)(b) in relation to a meeting—
- (a) need not summarise any decision made while the public were excluded from the meeting under [^{F4}section 42 of the Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 2014] ; but
 - (b) shall indicate the documents in relation to the meeting which are open for inspection in accordance with [^{F5}section 44] of that Act.

(4) This Article does not affect any provision made in relation to meetings of the body in question by Article 11(4) and (5) or any other statutory provision.
