SCHEDULE 6

PENSION COMPENSATION PROVISIONS

Active members who have not attained normal pension age at assessment date

- 13.—(1) This paragraph applies where the active member dies on or after the assessment date.
- (2) Subject to sub-paragraph (4), the widow or widower of the active member is entitled to periodic compensation commencing on the day following the active member's death and continuing for life.
- (3) The annual rate of the periodic compensation at any time is—
- (a) where the active member died after attaining normal pension age, half of the annual rate of the periodic compensation (including any increases under paragraph 28) to which the member would at that time have been entitled under paragraph 11 in respect of the pension had the member not died, and
 - (b) where the active member died before attaining normal pension age, half of the annual rate of the periodic compensation (including any increases under paragraph 28) to which the member would have been entitled at normal pension age under paragraph 11 if—
 - (i) normal pension age had been the member's actual age immediately before the date of the member's death, and
 - (ii) the member had not died.
- (4) The active member's widow or widower is not entitled to periodic compensation under this paragraph in such circumstances as may be prescribed.
- (5) In this paragraph "the pension" and "the active member" are to be construed in accordance with paragraph 11.
