EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations give effect in Northern Ireland to reciprocal arrangements relating to matters for which provision is made in Northern Ireland by Part II of the Child Benefit (Northern Ireland) Order 1975. The arrangements are contained in the Memorandum set out in Schedule 1 and have been made between the Department of Health and Social Services for Northern Ireland and the Secretary of State for Social Services.

The regulations modify Part II of the said Order and regulations made under that Part for the purposes of giving effect to the provisions of the reciprocal arrangements. The regulations also make adaptations to provisions of Part II of the said Order (which are set out in Schedule 2) as to administration and enforcement so that certain matters to which corresponding provisions of the Great Britain legislation relate are deemed to be matters to which the provisions of the said Order of 1975 relate.
