(4) Service under this rule of a copy of an order on a corporation may be effected by sending the copy to it at—

(a) such address, if any, as the corporation may in a written request to the Court have specified for the purpose of this rule in relation to the defendant or to the class or description of persons to which he belongs, or

(b) the registered office of the corporation or, if the corporation has no registered office, any place where it resides or carries on business.

(5) A copy of Schedule 1A to the Act of 1969 shall be served with or annexed to the attachment of earnings order.

Application to revive an attachment of earnings order

72A.—(1) An application to revive an attachment of earnings order shall be treated as if it were an application for such an order under rule 70.

Discharge or variation by court of own motion

74.—(1) Subject to paragraph 5, the powers conferred by section 76(1) of the Act of 1969 may be exercised by the Court of its own motion in the circumstances mentioned in the following paragraphs.

(2) Where it appears to the Court that a person served with an attachment of earnings order directed to him has not the defendant in his employment, the Court may discharge the order.

(3) Where an attachment of earnings order which has lapsed under section 76(6) of the Act of 1969 is again directed to a person who appears to the Court to have the defendant in his employment, the Court may make such consequential variations in the order as it thinks fit.

(4) Where, after an attachment of earnings order has been made, it appears to the Court that the related maintenance order has ceased to have effect, whether by virtue of the terms of the maintenance order or under paragraph 2 of Schedule 3 to the Order of 1978 or otherwise, the Court may discharge or vary the attachment of earnings order.

(5) Before discharging or varying an order of its own motion under any of the foregoing paragraphs, the Court shall, unless it thinks it unnecessary in the circumstances to do so, give the defendant and the person entitled to payment under the related maintenance order an opportunity of being heard on the question whether the order should be varied or discharged, and for that purpose the master may give them notice of a date, time and place at which the question will be considered.

Application to determine whether payments are earnings

75. An application to the High Court under section 77B(1) of the Act of 1969 must be made by summons returnable not less than 4 days after service thereof on the person (other than the applicant) who is also entitled to make the application.
