- (5) Where it is the established practice of an employer to require attendance on Sunday instead of Saturday, the overtime rates apply to workers in like manner as if the word "Saturday" were substituted for "Sunday" and the word "Sunday" for "Saturday".

B. WORKERS EMPLOYED ON INCENTIVE PAYMENT SCHEME:—

Workers employed under an incentive payment scheme are entitled to receive in respect of each hour of overtime worked in addition to incentive rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to a normal worker, at least the same amount of money as the appropriate general minimum time rate applicable, an amount equivalent to one-quarter, one-half, or the whole of the appropriate general minimum time rate, according as the overtime rate payable under the provisions of sub-paragraph A, if the worker had been employed on time work, would have been equivalent to time-and-a-quarter, time-and-a-half, or double time, respectively.

Overtime rates are payable in respect of all overtime worked on any day, notwithstanding that the total number of hours worked in the week does not exceed 40.

Paragraph 11.

“Customary Holiday” means—

- (a) Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such other week day as may be appointed by national proclamation or, if none is so appointed, the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, New Year's Day, Easter Monday, Easter Tuesday and three other days (being days on which the worker normally works but not being weekly short days) in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday; or
