That part of the waters within British fishery limits which is adjacent to Northern Ireland and which lies between $55^{\circ} 00' N$ and a line running due south-east from the Haulbowline Rocks (approximately $54^{\circ} 00' N$) and is:—

- (a) not nearer to any point on the baseline from which the breadth of the territorial sea adjacent to Great Britain or the Isle of Man is measured than to any point on the corresponding Northern Irish baselines, and
- (b) not more than 12 miles from the Northern Irish baselines.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations continue from 1st September 1980 to 31st August 1981, both dates inclusive, the prohibition on herring fishing by any means in an area off the Northern Ireland coast. This area lies between $55^{\circ} N$ and a line running south-east from the Haulbowline Rocks (approximately $54^{\circ} N$) and extends from the coast out to 12 miles from the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured or out to the median line with Scotland where this line is less than 12 miles from the baselines. In the case of herring caught by trawling or seining within the specified area the prohibition on landing, sale or offering or exposing for sale of these fish prescribed in section 126 of the Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1966 has effect. The previous regulations prohibiting fishing for herring in the specified area were the Herring (Prohibition of Fishing) (No. 2) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1979, (S.R. 1979 No. 308), which expired on 31st August 1980.
