(3) As soon as may be practicable after the tribunal make their determination a copy of the record of the determination, made in accordance with this rule, shall be given to each interested person and to any other person who appears to the tribunal to be interested and the person who brought the appeal shall be informed of the conditions governing appeals to a Commissioner.

PART III

APPEALS TO A COMMISSIONER

Right of appeal to Commissioner from decision of tribunal on point of law

9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), any person who is a party to proceedings before a tribunal may appeal to a Commissioner, with the leave of a Commissioner, against any decision of the tribunal given in those proceedings on the ground that the decision is erroneous in point of law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) the parties to the proceedings before the tribunal are the person who brought the appeal to the tribunal and the benefit or supplement officer against whose determination the appeal was brought.

(3) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any decision of a tribunal which is recorded in writing before 24th November 1980.

Applications for leave to appeal and appeals to Commissioner

10.—(1) An application for leave to appeal to a Commissioner from a decision of a tribunal on the ground that the decision is erroneous in point of law shall be made in writing within 3 months from the date on which the decision of the tribunal was sent in accordance with rule 8(3) to the person applying for leave or within such further time as the Commissioner may for special reasons allow.

(2) Subject to rule 11(6), an appeal against the decision of a tribunal shall be brought within 3 months from the date on which the decision giving leave to appeal was sent in accordance with rule 12(1) to the person to whom leave was given or within such further time as a Commissioner may for special reasons allow.

(3) An application for leave and an appeal shall include a statement of the point of law in respect of which the decision of the tribunal is alleged to be erroneous and shall be made or brought by giving or sending it to an office of the Department for transmission to a Commissioner.

(4) Where an application for leave is made or an appeal is brought by a benefit or supplement officer, a copy of the application or, as the case may be, of the notice of appeal shall be sent to any other person who, for the purpose of rule 9, was a party to the proceedings before the tribunal.

(5) The Department shall cause to be sent to the Commissioner—

- (a) in respect of an application, a copy of the record (made in pursuance of rule 8(2)) of the decision under appeal;
- (b) in respect of an appeal, a copy of such record and of the notice of appeal.

(6) Where a person, other than a benefit or supplement officer, purports to bring an appeal to the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland against a decision of a tribunal which is recorded in writing after 23rd November 1980, notwithstanding that by virtue of rule 3, which brings into force the provisions of paragraph 26 of Schedule 3 to the 1979 Order, he may no longer bring such an appeal, the Commissioner may treat the appeal as an application for leave made pursuant to paragraph (1).

Hearings before the Commissioner

11.—(1) There shall be an oral hearing of an application for leave to appeal or of an appeal—

- (a) if the person making the application or bringing the appeal so requests unless after considering the documents in the case and the reasons put forward in the request the Commissioner is satisfied that the application or appeal can properly be determined without an oral hearing (in which case written notice shall be given to the person who made the request); or
- (b) if, notwithstanding that no such request has been made, the Commissioner is satisfied that an oral hearing is desirable.

(2) Where—

- (a) there is no oral hearing, the Commissioner shall proceed to determine the application or appeal;
- (b) there is an oral hearing, reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to the persons who, for the purposes of rule 9, were parties to the proceedings before the tribunal and, if the Commissioner thinks fit, to any other person appearing to him to be interested.

(3) An oral hearing shall be held in public except in so far as the Commissioner may otherwise direct, whether at the request of an interested person or otherwise, if he is of the opinion that intimate personal or financial circumstances may have to be disclosed or that considerations of public security are involved.

(4) An interested person shall have the right to be present and to be heard if an oral hearing is held by the Commissioner and may be represented, whether by a person with professional qualifications or otherwise.

(5) If any interested person fails to appear either in person or by representative at the hearing, the Commissioner may proceed to determine the application or appeal notwithstanding the absence of such person or may give such directions as he thinks proper with a view to its determination.

(6) Where a Commissioner upon consideration of an application for leave gives leave to appeal he may, with the consent of all interested persons, proceed to determine any question of law arising on the application for leave as though it arose on the appeal and as though the application were an appeal.

(7) On an appeal from a decision of a tribunal the Commissioner may—

(a) refer the case to another tribunal with directions for its determination; or

(b) hold that the decision is not erroneous in point of law.

(8) Subject to the provisions of this Part of these rules, the procedure in connection with the consideration and determination of any application or appeal shall be such as the Commissioner may determine.

Decisions of the Commissioner

12.—(1) The decision of the Commissioner on an application for leave to appeal shall be recorded in writing and signed by him, and a copy of the decision shall be sent as soon as may be practicable to all interested persons,

(2) The decision of the Commissioner on any question of law arising on an appeal shall be in writing and signed by him, and he shall record the reasons for his decision and as soon as is practicable a signed copy of the decision and reasons shall be sent to the chairman of the tribunal whose decision was the subject of the appeal and copies of them shall be sent to the interested persons and, if the Commissioner thinks fit, to any other person appearing to him to be interested.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These rules govern the procedure of appeal tribunals constituted under Schedule 4 to the Supplementary Benefits (Northern Ireland) Order 1977 (as substituted by the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1979). They provide for a right of appeal on a point of law from the tribunals to a Social Security Commissioner and for the procedure before the Commissioner. In relation to the procedure of tribunals the rules replace the Supplementary Benefit (Appeal Tribunal) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1971 and the Family Income Supplements (Appeal Tribunal) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1971. (In this respect, the changes are minor or technical or consequential on the amendments made to the Family Income Supplements Act (Northern Ireland) 1971 and the Supplementary Benefits (Northern Ireland) Order 1977 by the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1980.) The provisions relating to the Social Security Commissioners coincide with the ending, by the coming into force of paragraph 26 of Schedule 3 to the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1979, of the right of appeal on a point of law from the tribunals to the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland.

Part I contains general provisions relating to citation, commencement and interpretation (rule 1), to revocations and transitory matters (rule 2), to an appointed day for the termination of appeals on a point of law from Appeal Tribunals to the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland (rule 3) and to travelling and other allowances for persons attending oral hearings (rule 4). Part II relates to appeals to tribunals and provides for the time and manner of bringing appeals (rule 5), for the time and place of tribunal hearings (rule 6), for tribunal hearings (rule 7) and for tribunal determinations (rule 8). Part III relates to appeals to a Social Security Commissioner, and provides for a right of appeal to a Commissioner from decisions of a tribunal on a point of law (rule 9), for applications for leave to appeal and for appeals to a Commissioner (rule 10), for hearings before the Commissioner (rule 11) and for decisions of the Commissioner (rule 12).
