EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the Social Security (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1976.

Regulation 3 is amended so as to provide a new method of calculating the amount of injury benefit payable to persons who have not attained the age of 16 (regulation 2(2)).

Regulation 37 is amended so as to except persons from disqualification for receiving benefit, and from suspension of payment of benefit, during imprisonment abroad if, in similar circumstances in Northern Ireland, they would be so excepted under regulations 37 and 38 of the Benefit Regulations (regulation 2(3)).

Regulation 38(1) is amended so as to provide for the appointment by the Department of persons to receive and deal with sums payable by way of benefit during any period when a beneficiary is undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody (regulation 2(4)).

Regulation 39 is amended so as to increase from 21 to 28 days the period during which payment of benefit for periods prior to the date of an award may be suspended and to extend the provisions for the suspension of such payments pending appeals or references to applications for the setting aside of decisions. The regulation also provides for suspending such payments, in cases where leave to appeal is necessary, during the period when an application for leave to appeal is under consideration, either by the local tribunal chairman, or by the Commissioner (regulation 2(5)).
