Persons by whom appeals may be brought

3.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this rule—

(a) an entitlement appeal shall be brought by the person in respect of whose claim the Secretary of State has given the decision against which the appeal lies; and

Method of appealing

4.—(1) An appeal to a Tribunal shall be commenced by a notice of appeal given to the Secretary of State on whichever of the forms of notice of appeal set out in Schedule 1 is appropriate:

Provided that where a person who is desirous of commencing an assessment appeal has signified to the Secretary of State his intention to appeal by a prepaid letter sent to the Secretary of State before the time for commencing the appeal has expired, and the appropriate form of notice of appeal is sent to the Secretary of State within six weeks after the form was sent by the Secretary of State to the appellant for completion, the appeal shall be deemed to have been commenced on the date on which the letter was so sent.

(2) The appropriate form of notice of appeal shall be supplied by the Secretary of State on request.

(3) A notice of appeal in Form 1, 3 or 5, shall be signed by the appellant, and a notice of appeal in Form 2, 4 or 6, shall be signed by the person acting on behalf of the appellant, and in each case shall bear the date on which it was signed, and shall be sent by post addressed to "The Secretary of State for Social Services".

Statement of Case and answer

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of Rules 6, 9 and 22, the Secretary of State shall, on receipt by him of a notice of appeal, prepare a document (to be called a "Statement of Case") containing the following information—

- (a) the relevant facts relating to the appellant's case as known to the Secretary of State, including the relevant medical history of the appellant; and
- (b) in the case of an entitlement appeal, the Secretary of State's reasons for making the decision against which the appeal is brought.

(2) When the Statement of Case has been prepared, the Secretary of State shall send two copies to the appellant and shall inform him that he may, if he so desires, submit (on a form to be supplied by the Secretary of State) an answer to the statement indicating—

- (a) whether, and in what respect, the facts in the Statement of Case are disputed;
- (b) any further facts which, in his opinion, are relevant to the appeal; and
- (c) his reasons for thinking that the decision of the Secretary of State, or the interim assessment, final decision or final assessment, as the case may be, made by the Secretary of State, was wrong.

(3) Where the appellant submits an answer disputing any of the facts in the Statement of Case or putting forward further facts, he shall attach to his answer such documentary evidence in support of his case as is in his possession or as he can reasonably obtain.

(4) Except where the appellant is resident outside the United Kingdom, he shall send his answer, and any documents submitted therewith, to the Secretary of State within 28 days from the date on which the Statement of Case was sent to him.

(5) The Secretary of State may, if he so desires, comment in writing on the appellant's answer and, if he does so, the Secretary of State shall send a copy of his comments to the appellant.

(6) As soon as may be after the receipt of the answer or, if the Appellant does not send an answer, on the expiration of the said 28 days (or, where the appellant is resident as aforesaid, at the expiration of such time as may be allowed by the Chairman) the Secretary of State shall, subject to the provisions of Rule 9, send to the Pensions Appeal Office—

- (a) three copies of the Statement of Case;
- (b) three copies of the appellant's answer (if any);
- (c) any documents submitted by the appellant; and
- (d) three copies of any comments made by the Secretary of State on the appellant's answer.

Disclosure of official documents and information

6.—(1) Where for the purposes of his appeal an appellant desires to have disclosed any document, or part of any document, which he has reason to believe is in the possession of a government department, he may, at any time not later than six weeks after the Statement of Case was sent to him, apply to the Chairman for the disclosure of the document or part, and, if the Chairman considers that the document or part is likely to be relevant to any issue to be determined on the appeal, he may give a direction to the department concerned requiring its disclosure (if in the possession of the department) in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Chairman may think fit:

Provided that directions given under this Rule shall not require the disclosure of—

- (i) documents in the nature of departmental minutes or reports; or

- (ii) the name of any person in the service of Her Majesty who has given a report or medical certificate relating to the appellant or to the person in respect of whose death the appeal is brought.

For the purposes of this paragraph a certificate given by an officer of the government department concerned (being an officer authorized in that behalf by the Secretary of State or Minister in charge of the department) that a document or name is such a document or name as is described in sub-paragraph (i) or sub-paragraph (ii) shall be final and conclusive.

(2) On receipt of a direction given by the Chairman under this Rule, the Secretary of State or Minister in charge of the government department concerned, or any person authorized by him in that behalf, may certify to the Chairman—

- (a) that it would be contrary to the public interest for the whole or part of the document to which the direction relates to be disclosed publicly; or
(b) that the whole or part of the document ought not, for reasons of security, to be disclosed in any manner whatsoever;

and where a certificate is given under sub-paragraph (a), the Chairman shall give such directions to the Tribunal as may be requisite for prohibiting or restricting the disclosure in public of the document, or part thereof, as the case may be, and where a certificate is given under sub-paragraph (b) the Chairman shall direct the Tribunal to consider whether the appellant's case will be prejudiced if the appeal proceeds without such disclosure, and, where the Tribunal are of opinion that the appellant would be prejudiced if the appeal were to proceed without such disclosure, they shall adjourn the hearing of the appeal until such time as the necessity for non-disclosure on the ground of security no longer exists.

(3) At the hearing the appellant may apply to the Tribunal for the disclosure of such a document as is mentioned in this Rule, and, where it appears to the Tribunal that the document is likely to be relevant to any issue to be determined on the appeal, and that the appellant has reasonable excuse for having failed to make an application for disclosure to the Chairman before the hearing under paragraph (1) the Tribunal may, unless the document is produced by the Secretary of State's representative, adjourn the case for an application to the Chairman to be made by the appellant.

(4) It shall be a sufficient compliance with a direction given for the disclosure of a document, or part of a document, under this Rule, if there is produced a copy of the document or the part thereof certified as a true copy by an officer of the department concerned authorized in that behalf by the Secretary of State or Minister in charge of the department.

(5) References in this Rule to a government department and to the Secretary of State or Minister in charge of a government department shall be respectively construed as including references to a department of the Government of Northern Ireland and to a Minister appointed to administer such a department.

List of cases for hearing

7. A list of cases for hearing shall be prepared in the Pensions Appeal Office, and on receipt in that office of the documents mentioned in Rule 5(6) the case shall be entered in that list.

Date of hearing

8.—(1) Not less than 10 clear days before the date fixed for the hearing, a notice of hearing to the effect of Form 7 shall be sent from the Pensions Appeal Office to the appellant, and the Secretary of State shall be informed of the date so fixed.

(2) If, at any time before the date fixed for the hearing, the appellant becomes aware of any circumstances which will prevent him from attending the Tribunal on the date so fixed, he shall (unless the appeal is to be heard in his absence under Rule 20) immediately notify the Pensions Appeal Office of his inability to appear, stating the reasons:

Provided that, where the appellant is prevented from attending by reason of circumstances arising within 24 hours of the time of the hearing, the appellant shall, in addition to notifying the Pensions Appeal Office, use his best endeavours to inform the Clerk to the Tribunal at the place where the appeal is to be heard of his inability to appear.

Withdrawal of appeal

9.—(1) An appellant may at any time before the hearing give notice to the Pensions Appeal Office that he desires to withdraw his appeal, and thereupon the appeal shall be struck out.

(2) Where, after a notice of appeal has been given, the Secretary of State decides the issue arising on the appeal in favour of the appellant, the Secretary of State shall give notice of his decision to the Pensions Appeal Office and to the appellant, and the appeal shall be struck out.

(3) In an assessment appeal the making of a new increased assessment for the period under appeal (whether covering additional disabilities or not) shall be deemed to be a decision by the Secretary of State in favour of the appellant and, on notice given in accordance with paragraph (2), the appeal shall be struck out, without prejudice to any appeal against that decision.

Appeal not prosecuted

10. Subject to the provisions of Rule 20, if the appellant fails to prosecute the appeal and does not satisfy the Chairman that he had sufficient reason for his failure to do so, the Chairman may direct the case to be placed in the deferred list.

Representation of the appellant and the Secretary of State

11.—(1) An appellant may conduct his case himself or may be represented by any person (whether holding any legal or other qualification or being a member of any war pensions committee, association of ex-servicemen, trade union or other body or not) whom he may appoint to assist him for the purpose.

(2) The Secretary of State may be represented by any person whom he may appoint for the purpose.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Tribunal to assist any appellant who appears to them to be unable to make the best of his case.

Evidence

12.—(1) The appellant may give evidence in support of his appeal and the appellant and the Secretary of State may, subject to the provisions of the next following paragraph, call a doctor or any other witness, and may produce at the hearing any further documentary evidence not already in the possession of the Tribunal.

(2) Where the appellant or the Secretary of State intends to call a doctor as a witness at the hearing, he shall, unless he has already notified the Pensions Appeal Office of his intention to call the witness, send notice of his intention to the Pensions Appeal Office not less than seven days before the date fixed for the hearing, and the Pensions Appeal Office shall notify the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the appellant who shall then be entitled to call a doctor at the hearing without giving notice.

(3) The Tribunal may require the appellant to furnish such evidence of his identity as they may think fit, and, where the appeal is brought by a person acting on behalf of the appellant, the Tribunal may require him to satisfy them as to his qualifications for so acting.

(4) The Tribunal may summon before it expert or other witnesses.

(5) The Tribunal shall not refuse evidence tendered to them on the ground only that such evidence would be inadmissible in a court of law.

(6) Subject to Rule 22 and to any direction given by the Chairman under Rule 6 or under Rule 15, every document tendered in evidence or considered by the Tribunal for the purposes of the appeal shall be made available to the appellant or his representative (if any) and to the Secretary of State or his representative in such manner as the Tribunal may direct.

Procedure at hearing

13.—(1) At the hearing the Tribunal shall give an opportunity to the appellant or his representative to address the Tribunal and call witnesses and, if the appellant is not represented, the examination of the appellant's witnesses may, if the appellant so desires, be conducted by the Chairman of the Tribunal on behalf of the appellant. The representative of the Secretary of State may put questions to any witness called by or on behalf of the appellant.

(2) The Tribunal shall give the representative of the Secretary of State an opportunity to address the Tribunal and call witnesses. The appellant or his representative may put questions to any witness called by or on behalf of the Secretary of State.

Adjournment for further information or evidence

14.—(1) Where during the hearing of an appeal it appears to the Tribunal that it is necessary to obtain further information on any point, or that the appellant or the Secretary of State should be allowed or required to procure or produce further evidence, the appeal shall be adjourned for such further information to be obtained in such manner as the Tribunal may direct or for the appellant or the Secretary of State to procure or produce such further evidence.

(2) Where the Tribunal adjourns the hearing for further information to be obtained, the information, if and when obtained, shall, subject to any direction given by the Chairman under Rule 6, be communicated to the appellant and the Secretary of State, together with a statement that the appellant or the Secretary of State may comment thereon in writing, if he so desires, or may address the Tribunal thereon at a further hearing of the case.

(3) Where the hearing is adjourned for the appellant or the Secretary of State to procure or produce further written evidence, the evidence shall, subject to any directions given by the Chairman under Rule 6, be communicated to the Pensions Appeal Office, together with a statement indicating whether or not the appellant or the Secretary of State wishes to address the Tribunal on the evidence at a further hearing of the case, and a copy of the evidence shall be sent from the Pensions Appeal Office to the Secretary of State, or, as the case may be, to the appellant, together with a statement that the Secretary of State, or as the case may be, the appellant, may comment thereon in writing, if he so desires, or may address the Tribunal thereon at a further hearing of the case.

(4) Where the appellant or the Secretary of State informs the Pensions Appeal Office of his desire to address the Tribunal on the further information, or on further written evidence, a notice of hearing shall be sent to the appellant and to the Secretary of State not less than 10 days before the date fixed for the case to be further heard.

(5) Where neither the appellant nor the Secretary of State wishes to address the Tribunal on the further information or further written evidence, the Tribunal may give their decision without a further hearing of the case after taking into consideration any comments in writing made by the appellant or by the Secretary of State on the further information or evidence.

(6) Where the hearing is adjourned for the appellant or the Secretary of State to procure or produce further oral evidence, a notice of hearing shall be sent to the appellant and to the Secretary of State not less than 10 days before the date fixed for the case to be further heard if a date for the further hearing was not fixed at the adjournment or the date then fixed has to be altered.

(7) Where the appellant fails to procure or produce further evidence which he has been required by the Tribunal to procure or produce, and the Tribunal is satisfied that the failure was due to the wilful default of the appellant, the case shall be placed in the deferred list.

Power of Tribunal to take expert advice

15.—(1) Where in the case of any appeal the Tribunal are of opinion that a difficult medical or other technical question arises, the Tribunal may, before giving their decision, take the opinion of a medical specialist or other technical expert in such manner as may appear to them to be convenient.

(2) Where the question is a medical question, the Tribunal may arrange for the appellant to be examined by a medical specialist for a report on his condition.

(3) The Tribunal shall direct the specialist or other technical expert to send his opinion or report to the Pensions Appeal Office, and copies thereof and of the terms of reference to the specialist or technical expert shall be sent from the Pensions Appeal Office to the appellant and to the Secretary of State together with a statement that the appellant or the Secretary of State may comment on the opinion or report in writing, if he so desires, or may address the Tribunal thereon at a further hearing of the case:

Provided that where it appears to the Chairman that it would not be in the best interests of the appellant for the opinion or report of a medical specialist to be communicated to him, the Chairman may direct that, instead of being sent to the appellant, the opinion or report shall be sent to the appellant's medical adviser (if known to the Tribunal) and, if the appellant was represented at the hearing, to his representative.

(4) Where the Pensions Appeal Office is notified by, or on behalf of, the appellant or the Secretary of State that a further hearing is desired on the opinion or report, a notice of hearing shall be sent to the appellant and to the Secretary of State not less than 10 days before the date fixed for the case to be further heard.

(5) Where neither the appellant nor the Secretary of State desires to address the Tribunal further, the Tribunal may give their decision without a further hearing of the case, after taking into consideration any comments in writing made by the appellant or by the Secretary of State on the opinion or report.

Adjourned hearings

16. Where an appeal has been adjourned by a Tribunal and the Chairman is of the opinion that it is not practicable, or that it is not possible, without undue delay, for the hearing of the appeal to be continued by the same Tribunal he may direct that the appeal may be re-heard by another Tribunal.

Medical examination of appellant

17. In a case where the appellant is present in person at the hearing and is the person in respect of whose incapacity for work or disablement the appeal is brought, the medical member or members of the Tribunal may, with the assent of the appellant, make a medical examination of the appellant.

Decision of the Tribunal

18. The decision of the Tribunal may, at the discretion of the Tribunal, be announced by the Chairman immediately after the hearing of the case, or may be communicated in writing to the appellant and the Secretary of State within seven days after the Tribunal have reached their decision, and in either case the Chairman shall indicate shortly the Tribunal's reasons for their decision.

19.—(1) The Clerk to the Tribunal shall enter, in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, a minute of every decision of the Tribunal.

(2) The Chairman of the Tribunal shall sign a document (to be called a "Form of Decision") recording the decision on the appeal and it shall be the duty of the Clerk to the Tribunal to transmit the Form of Decision to the Pensions Appeal Office.

(3) Copies of the Form of Decision shall be prepared in the Pensions Appeal Office, and shall be certified under the hand of an officer authorised in that behalf by the Chairman, and a copy so certified shall be sent to the appellant and to the Secretary of State.

(4) A copy of a Form of Decision purporting to have been certified as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the decision of the Tribunal on the appeal to which that Form of Decision relates.

Appeal in absence of appellant

20. Subject to any arrangements made by the Chairman under Rule 21, an appeal shall not be heard in the absence of the appellant unless he has sent to the Pensions Appeal Office, or to the Tribunal a request that his appeal should be heard in his absence, or the Tribunal are satisfied on representation made on behalf of the appellant, that he desires that his appeal should be heard in his absence:

Provided that, notwithstanding that such a request or representation has been made, the Tribunal may, if they think that the presence of the appellant is necessary for the due determination of the appeal, give directions that the appeal shall not be heard in his absence.

Appellant unable to attend Tribunal through infirmity

21. Where the Chairman is satisfied that any appellant is unable, through physical or mental infirmity, to attend the Tribunal and that his incapacity is likely to continue for a prolonged period, the Chairman may make such arrangements as may appear to him best suited, in all the circumstances of the case, for disposing fairly of the appeal, and in particular may arrange—

- (a) for the appellant to be visited at some convenient place by one or more members of the Tribunal, or by other persons appointed in that behalf by the Chairman, for the purpose of recording the appellant's evidence and any statement which he may wish to make, and for the appellant to be medically examined, so however that in an assessment appeal the visit shall be made by one or both of the medical members of the Tribunal or by another duly qualified medical practitioner, as may be appointed by the Chairman;
- (b) for taking, whether before the Tribunal or otherwise, the evidence of medical or other witnesses on behalf of the appellant and the Secretary of State, and in particular the evidence of the near relatives, guardian or other representative of the appellant:

(c) for enabling the appellant's representative and the Secretary of State to comment, whether at a hearing of the Tribunal or in writing, on the evidence so taken and to make a statement in writing or to address the Tribunal;

(d) for the determination of the appeal in the absence of the appellant:

Provided that any arrangement made under paragraph (a) or (b) shall make provision for enabling the representative of the Secretary of State, if he so desires, to be present while the evidence of the appellant and other witnesses is taken and to ask questions of the appellant and other witnesses.

Medical evidence injurious to the appellant

22.—(1) This rule shall apply to any case where the medical history of the appellant or of the person in respect of whose death an appeal is brought comprises material which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State it would be undesirable in the interests of the appellant to disclose to him.

(2) Where in any case to which this rule applies it comes to the knowledge of the Secretary of State, before the Statement of Case is sent to the appellant under Rule 5 that the appellant is to be represented at the hearing of the appeal, the representative shall for the purposes of the provisions of that Rule relating to the transmission of the Statement of Case, the submission of an answer and the transmission of any comments thereon, be treated as the appellant.

(3) If in any case to which this Rule applies it appears to the Secretary of State that the appellant does not intend to be represented at the hearing of the appeal, the Secretary of State shall omit from the copies of the

(3) If in any case to which this Rule applies it appears to the Secretary of State that the appellant does not intend to be represented at the hearing of the appeal, the Secretary of State shall omit from the copies of the Statement of Case sent by him to the appellant under Rule 5 those portions which in the opinion of the Secretary of State it would be undesirable in the interests of the appellant to disclose to him, so, however, that the copies of the Statement of Case sent by the Secretary of State to the Pensions Appeal Office under Rule 5(6) shall contain the omitted portions and shall be accompanied by a notice stating the fact of the omission and the reasons therefor.

(4) On the receipt of copies of a Statement of Case and a notice under paragraph (3), the Chairman shall use his best endeavours to assist the appellant to obtain a suitable person or organisation to represent him at the hearing of the appeal, and where such a representative is obtained the Secretary of State shall, on being notified to that effect, send to the representative two copies of the omitted portions of the Statement of Case, together with a statement that the omissions were made pursuant to this Rule.

(5) In any case to which this Rule applies the Chairman shall indicate to the Tribunal before the hearing of the appeal which portions of the Statement of Case have not been disclosed to the appellant, and the Tribunal shall decide whether, in the interests of the appellant, those portions should or should not be disclosed to him, and accordingly the Tribunal may order that all or any of those portions shall be communicated to the appellant forthwith, or may hear the appeal without all or any of those portions being so communicated, so, however, that the Tribunal shall take the omitted portions into consideration before deciding the appeal.

Death of appellant before hearing

23.—(1) Where the Pensions Appeal Office is notified that an appellant has died before the appeal is decided, the case shall be placed in the deferred list.

(2) In such a case, the Chairman may give directions to the Secretary of State to ascertain the identity of the designated person, if any.

(3) The Chairman may, on application made to him under Rule 25 by the designated person, give directions that the appeal shall proceed, so far as may be, as if the designated person had brought the appeal on behalf of the appellant in the first instance and the appellant had not died, and that it shall be heard with any appeal brought by the designated person in respect of the appellant's death.

Appeal to Supreme Court on point of law

24.—(1) Where the appellant or the Secretary of State is dissatisfied with the decision of the Tribunal on an entitlement appeal as being erroneous in point of law, he may apply to the Tribunal, in the manner prescribed by this Rule, for leave to appeal to the judge of the Supreme Court nominated for the purpose by the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland.

(2) An application for leave to appeal may be made—

(a) at the hearing of the appeal, immediately after the decision of the Tribunal is announced; or

(b) by notice in writing sent to the Pensions Appeal Office within six weeks of the communication to the appellant of the decision of the Tribunal; and in making his application the applicant shall state in writing the point of law in respect of which he claims that the decision of the Tribunal is erroneous and on which he wishes to appeal.

(3) On receipt of an application in writing for leave to appeal, a copy thereof shall be sent from the Pensions Appeal Office to the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, to the appellant, and a notice shall be sent to the appellant and to the Secretary of State stating that the application will, unless the Secretary of State or the appellant desires to address the Tribunal thereon, be determined by the Tribunal without a hearing, and, unless within 15 days of the sending to him of the notice the Secretary of State or the appellant notifies the Pensions Appeal Office that he desires to address the Tribunal, the application may be so determined.

(4) Where the appellant or the Secretary of State notifies the Pensions Appeal Office that he desires to address the Tribunal, a notice of hearing shall be sent to the appellant and to the Secretary of State not less than 10 days before the date fixed for the hearing of the application.

(5) Where the Tribunal decide to give leave to appeal to the judge of the Supreme Court, the Chairman shall, within such time and in such manner as may be determined by rules of court, set forth the question of law for the decision of the judge.

(6) At the hearing of an appeal, or of an application for leave to appeal to the judge of the Supreme Court, the Chairman shall, at the request of the appellant or the Secretary of State, take a note—

(a) of any question of law raised at the hearing;

(b) of the facts in evidence in relation thereto; and

(c) of the decision of the Tribunal thereon;

and, where such a note has been taken, the Chairman shall (whether an application for leave to appeal is made or not) on the application of the appellant or the Secretary of State furnish him with a copy of the note, and shall sign the copy.

Deferred list cases

25.—(1) Where a case is placed in the deferred list, notice of that fact shall be sent from the Pensions Appeal Office to the Secretary of State and to the appellant.

(2) Where an appeal has been placed in the deferred list because the appellant has died before the appeal was decided, the Secretary of State shall notify the designated person, in accordance with any directions given by the Chairman, of this fact.

(3) Where a case has been placed in the deferred list, an appellant or, as the case may be, the designated person may at any time within 12 months after notice of that fact has been given apply to the Chairman for an order that the case be restored to the list of cases for hearing.

(4) An order under paragraph (3) above may be made unconditionally or subject to such terms and conditions as the Chairman thinks just.

Provided that, where the case has been placed in the deferred list pursuant to a direction given by the Chairman under Rule 10, the case shall, on the application of the appellant, be restored unconditionally to the list of cases for hearing unless the Chairman is satisfied that the appellant's failure to prosecute the appeal was due to his wilful default.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules.)

These Rules supersede the Pensions Appeal Tribunals (Northern Ireland) Rules 1972, as amended. They consolidate existing rules and make some amendments of substance. Rules 3, 23 and 25 contain modifications to provide for the bringing or carrying on of appeals after the death of the original claimant.

Rule 25 is amended to provide that an appeal which has been struck out after having been on the deferred list for a year may not be brought again without the leave of the Chairman of the Tribunal.

Rule 26 consolidates some of the provisions relating to the payment of fees and expenses by the Tribunal. However, the amounts payable will no longer be stipulated in the Rules, instead being determined administratively by the Lord Chief Justice with the consent of the Minister for the Civil Service.
