EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules.)

These Rules amend the County Court Rules (Northern Ireland) 1981 so as—

- (1) to require a plaintiff in a remitted action to lodge with the chief clerk, in addition to the writ of summons or other originating process, all other pleadings;
- (2) to effect amendments to Order 26 (small claims procedure), the main alterations being—
 - (a) a claim for damages in respect of a road traffic accident may not be made by way of the small claims procedure;
 - (b) the required number of copies of an application has been reduced to two (unless there is more than one respondent) and the forms have been revised;
 - (c) the chief clerk may, where he is of the opinion that it is impracticable to serve an application by means of the postal recorded delivery service, direct service by ordinary first-class post or in such other manner as he may direct;
 - (d) a circuit registrar may transfer an application to another court if he is satisfied that the application could be more conveniently or fairly heard and determined in that court;
 - (e) a certificate of award may be signed by a circuit registrar or chief clerk;
 - (f) a circuit registrar may set aside an award made in the absence of the respondent if it is subsequently shown to his satisfaction that there was good reason for such absence;
 - (g) a circuit registrar may award the appropriate court fee and where proceedings were properly commenced under Order 12 (Default and Summary Actions) he may award expenses in addition to costs;
- (3) to enable decrees to be issued before the time for appeal or the time for making an application for case stated has expired;
- (4) to effect other minor amendments.
