EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations amend the Social Security (Determination of Claims and Questions) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1975 ("the principal regulations") and the Social Security (Attendance Allowance) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1975 ("the Attendance Allowance Regulations").

Regulation 2 amends the principal regulations. Paragraph (1) converts the requirement under regulation 3(2) of the principal regulations that local tribunals, medical boards and medical appeal tribunals shall order persons to withdraw while any question of procedure is discussed into a requirement that they may order persons so to withdraw. Paragraphs (2) and (5) amend regulations 10 and 22 of the principal regulations to provide that the "reasonable notice" required to be given, under the principal regulations, of the time and place of hearings of local tribunals, and medical appeal tribunals, respectively, is not less than 10 days, and they revoke the provisos to regulations 10(3) and 22(4) of the principal regulations. Paragraph (3) inserts a new paragraph in regulation 11 of the principal regulations which requires complete re-hearing by a local tribunal of a case where, following an adjournment, the tribunal is differently constituted. Paragraph (6) inserts a new paragraph in regulation 26 of the principal regulations to provide for treating the date on which an insurance officer first decides that a decision involving payment of industrial injuries benefit should be reviewed as the date of the application for the review. Paragraph (7) amends regulation 29 of the principal regulations so as to specify the past period that may be taken into account where an assessment of the extent of disablement is revised on review in consequence of a decision relating to the recrudescence of an industrial disease.

Regulation 3 inserts regulation 5A in the principal regulations providing for the withdrawal of appeals to local tribunals and medical appeal tribunals and for the withdrawal of references made to the latter.

Regulation 4 inserts regulation 10A in the Attendance Allowance Regulations which provides for time limits for the submission of written observations in proceedings before a Commissioner by way of appeal or application for leave to appeal against a decision of the Attendance Allowance Board.
