

1984 No. 2

HOUSING

Housing (Right to Buy) (Mortgage Limit) Regulations
(Northern Ireland) 1984

Made . . . . . 9th January 1984

Coming into operation . . . . . 9th February 1984

The Department of the Environment in exercise of the powers conferred on it by Article 13(4) of the Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1983(a) and of every other power enabling it in that behalf hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Housing (Right to Buy) (Mortgage Limit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1984 and shall come into operation on 9th February 1984.

(2) In these regulations—

“admissible source” means a source of income of the tenant which is to be taken into account for the purposes of these regulations;

“tenant” means a person to whom the right to buy belongs under Chapter I of Part II of the Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1983 and who is entitled to leave outstanding an amount of the purchase price on the security of a first mortgage to the Northern Ireland Housing Executive; and

“the Order” means the Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1983.

Available annual income

2. The amount to be taken into account as the tenant’s available annual income under Article 13 of the Order (which deals with the amount to be secured by mortgage) is to be calculated by taking the amount which in accordance with regulations 3 to 6 is to be taken into account as his annual income and deducting from it in accordance with regulation 7 sums related to his commitments.

Income from employment

3.—(1) This regulation applies to income from an employment.

(2) The amount to be taken into account as income to which this regulation applies is the tenant’s current annual pay, namely his current pay expressed as an annual amount or, where that amount does not fairly represent his current annual pay, such amount as does.

(3) In this regulation—

“employment” includes a part-time employment and an office but does not include a casual or temporary employment; and

“pay” includes any commission, bonus, allowance (but not an expense allowance), tip, gratuity, or other payment made to the tenant in connection with his employment but does not include any benefit in kind; and references to pay are references to it before any statutory or other deduction has been made.

Income from a business

4.—(1) This regulation applies to income from a business carried on by the tenant (whether or not with any other person).

(2) The amount to be taken into account as the tenant's annual income from the business is an amount which, having regard to the latest available information, fairly represents the current annual net profit of the business or, if the tenant shares the net profit with any other person, his share of the net profit.

(3) In this regulation "business" includes any trade, profession or vocation.

Other income

5.—(1) This regulation applies to income from a source to which regulations 3 and 4 do not apply.

(2) No account shall be taken of state benefits other than the benefits under—

(a) sections 35 and 36 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland) 1966(a) (graduated retirement benefits);

(b) Articles 10, 17 and 18 of the Social Security Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1975(b) (widower's retirement pensions, widow's and widower's invalidity pensions); and

(c) the following provisions of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Act 1975(c) to the extent that they relate to any benefit by way of pension or other periodical payments—sections 15, 16 and 36 (invalidity benefits);

sections 24 to 26 (widow's benefits);

sections 28, 29, 39 and 40 (retirement pensions);

section 57(1) (disability benefits);

sections 67(1), 69, 70, 71(1) and 72(1) (industrial death benefits); and section 76 (industrial diseases benefits).

(3) The amount to be taken into account as the tenant's annual income from a source to which this regulation applies, which is not excluded from account by paragraph (2), is an amount which before any statutory or other deduction represents the tenant's current income from that source expressed as an annual amount.

(4) In this regulation "state benefits" means any benefits under the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland) 1966, the Family Income Supplements Act (Northern Ireland) 1971(d), the Social Security Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1975, the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Acts 1975 to 1982(e), the Child Benefit (Northern Ireland) Order 1975(f) and the Supplementary Benefits (Northern Ireland) Order 1977(g).

(a) 1966 c. 6 (N.I.) as continued in force by regulation 2 of the Social Security (Graduated Retirement Benefit) (No. 2) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1978 (S.R. 1978 No. 105)

(b) S.I. 1975/1503 (N.I. 15)

(c) 1975 c. 15

(d) 1971 c. 8 (N.I.)

(e) 1975 c. 15, S.I. 1977/610 (N.I. 11), S.I. 1979/396 (N.I. 15), S.I. 1980/870 (N.I. 8), S.I. 1981/1118 (N.I. 25), S.I. 1982/1084 (N.I. 16)

(f) S.I. 1975/1504 (N.I. 16)

(g) S.I. 1977/2156 (N.I. 27), (other than Articles 1, 42 and Schedules 4 to 7), with certain amendments is set out in Part II of Schedule 2 to the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1980 (S.I. 1980/870 (N.I. 8)) and has been subsequently amended by S.I. 1980/1087 (N.I. 13), S.I. 1981/1118 (N.I. 25), S.I. 1982/1084 (N.I. 16) and S.I. 1983/1121 (N.I. 14)

Income from more than one source

6. If the tenant has income from more than one admissible source, the amount to be taken into account as his annual income shall be the total amount of his annual income from all admissible sources determined in accordance with the provisions of these regulations.

Deductions for commitments

7.—(1) Sums related to the tenant's commitments are to be deducted from the amount to be taken into account as his annual income if he is liable to make:

- (a) any maintenance payments; or
- (b) any payments under a credit agreement; or
- (c) any payments under a court order;

and the payments are likely to continue for more than 18 months.

(2) The sums which are to be deducted are sums equal in total to the total of the annual amounts currently payable, for which the conditions in paragraph (1) are satisfied.

(3) In this regulation—

“credit agreement” means a loan agreement, hire purchase agreement or other agreement for credit; and

“maintenance payment” means any payment by the tenant for the maintenance of a dependent child under the age of 16 or for the maintenance of his spouse or former spouse

Estimates

8. The Northern Ireland Housing Executive may accept any estimate made for the purposes of regulations 3 to 7.

Joint tenants

9. When more than one tenant is entitled to leave outstanding an amount of the purchase price on the security of a first mortgage to the Northern Ireland Housing Executive, the preceding provisions of these regulations shall be applied separately to determine the amount of each tenant's available annual income.

Multipliers

10.—(1) This regulation specifies the appropriate factor to be applied as a multiplier of the tenant's available income to arrive at the limit imposed by Article 13 of the Order.

(2) If the tenant's income is the principal income, the appropriate factor in relation to his available annual income is the multiplier shown in the following Table corresponding to his age on the date of service of the notice under Article 7 of the Order:—

TABLE

Tenant's age on the date of service of the notice	Multiplier
Under 60 ...	2.5
60 and over but under 65 ...	2.0
65 and over ...	1.0

(3) If the tenant's income is not the principal income, the appropriate factor in relation to his available annual income is 1.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), a tenant's income is the principal income for the purposes of this regulation if he is the only tenant with income or there is more than one tenant with income and the tenants require the Northern Ireland Housing Executive to treat his income as the principal income.

(5) The income of only one tenant shall be treated as the principal income for the purposes of this regulation.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Department of the Environment for Northern Ireland on 9th January 1984.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations provide for the calculation of the tenant's available annual income and specify the appropriate factor by which it must be multiplied to arrive at the limit which applies under Article 13 of the Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1983 to a mortgage to be secured from the Executive for a tenant buying his home under the right to buy provisions in the Order.

Regulation 2 provides that the tenant's available annual income is to be calculated by taking his annual income and deducting from it sums related to his commitments.

Regulations 3 to 6 deal with the method of calculating the amount to be taken into account as the tenant's annual income.

Regulation 7 provides for the deductions which are to be made for the tenant's commitments.

Regulation 8 provides for the acceptance of estimates.

Regulation 9 deals with the calculation of each tenant's available annual income where there is more than one tenant.

Regulation 10 specifies the multipliers to be applied to the tenant's available annual income to arrive at the mortgage limit.
