EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules.)

These rules amend the Bankruptcy Rules (Northern Ireland) 1983 so as:—

- (a) to apply Order 45 of the Rules of the Supreme Court (Northern Ireland) 1980 (enforcement of judgments and orders) to the enforcement of bankruptcy orders (rule 3(2));
- (b) to enable the Master (Taxing Office) to require the Master (Bankruptcy) to produce for inspection the file of proceedings in any matter (rule 3(3));
- (c) to make the court's power to stay the advertisement of an adjudication order subject to section 129 of the Irish Bankrupt and Insolvent Act 1857 (which requires the court to publish notice of an adjudication order forthwith in certain circumstances) (rule 3(4));
- (d) to provide that the Official Assignee need only serve a copy of the notes of a preliminary examination on a bankrupt where he proposes to invite the bankrupt to adopt such notes as part of his evidence at a public examination (rule 3(5));
- (e) to require the Official Assignee to furnish a bankrupt who has served notice for the convening of a composition meeting with a list of any creditors not named in the statement of affairs who have proved debts (rule 3(6));
- (f) to require the Official Assignee to furnish an arranging debtor who has filed notice of a special sitting with a list of any creditors not named in the arranging debtor's statement of affairs who have proved debts (rule 3(8));
- (g) to require the Master (Bankruptcy) to send to the Official Assignee a copy of an order dismissing an arrangement petition in every case (and not merely when the order is made after notice of the proceedings has been given to the creditors) (rule 3(9));
- (h) to require the Official Assignee or trustee before a sitting or meeting of creditors to lodge with the Master (Bankruptcy) or the chairman of the meeting a list of all debts admitted by him and all proofs of debt received by him and not yet admitted (rule 3(11));
- (i) to provide that a person (other than one whose debt has been admitted under Article 16 of the Bankruptcy Amendment (Northern Ireland) Order 1980) shall not be entitled to vote as a creditor at any sitting or meeting of creditors unless the proof of his debt has been received by the Official Assignee or trustee not less than 3 days before the day appointed for the sitting or meeting or by the Master (Bankruptcy) or chairman of the meeting before the sitting or meeting (rule 3(11)); and
- (j) to make other minor amendments and to correct drafting errors.
