EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations further amend the Income Support (Transitional) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 in connection with the introduction of income support. They provide for a person's transitional addition, special transitional addition and personal expenses addition not to be reduced where there has been an increase in his income attributable to the receipt of a training allowance.

These regulations contain only provisions consequential on Articles 21 to 24 of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 ("the Order") in their application to income support and are made before the expiry of 12 months from the commencement of those Articles. Accordingly the regulations are exempt, by virtue of Article 62(5) of the Order, from reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.
