Consignments landed in contravention of Order

5.—(1) If it appears to an inspector that a consignment is in the course of being landed or is likely to be landed and that if landed, such consignment would be landed in contravention of the provisions of this Order he may serve upon the importer or any person in control of the landing or unloading of that consignment from a vehicle, vessel, aircraft, hovercraft or freight container a notice prohibiting the landing or unloading of that consignment or requiring that, if landed or unloaded, the consignment be destroyed within such time and in such manner and at such place as may be set out in the notice.

(2) If it appears to an inspector at any time that a consignment has been landed and that such landing is in contravention of the provisions of this Order he may serve upon the importer a notice requiring him within such time and in such manner and at such place as may be set out in the notice to destroy the consignment or, if it is considered appropriate by the inspector, to re-export the consignment and take such other steps as may be set out in the notice to prevent the spread of Colorado Beetle (Leptinotarsa decemlineata (Say)).

(5) A notice served under paragraph (1) or (2) may be amended or withdrawn by the Department or an inspector by a further notice served upon the person upon whom the first notice was served.

(6) If a person shall fail to comply with the requirements of a notice served under paragraph (1), (2) or (5) then without prejudice to any proceedings under this Order consequent upon such failure, an inspector or a person authorised by him for the purpose may, on production if so required of his authority, enter for the purposes of this Order any premises in which the consignment to which the notice relates may be and take such steps as appear to the inspector to be necessary either to ensure that the requirements of the notice have been complied with or to remedy the consequences of the failure so to comply and the cost of the taking of such steps shall be recoverable as a civil debt by the Department from the person upon whom the notice was served.

(7) An inspector who authorises a person to take action as set out in paragraph (6) shall give instructions in writing to that person as to the steps which appear to the inspector to be necessary for that person to take.

(This note is not part of the Order.)

This Order prohibits for the period commencing 19th April 1988 until 19th June 1988 the landing in Northern Ireland of consignments of parsley grown in Italy, on account of recent findings of Colorado Beetle (Article 3).

The Order—

- (a) provides powers of entry, examination and sampling and powers to enable remedial action to be taken where such a consignment is landed or is likely to be landed or is reasonably suspected by an inspector of the Department of Agriculture to have been landed in contravention of the Order (Articles 4 and 5);
- (b) provides that persons having in their possession information regarding any such consignment landed in Northern Ireland may be required to disclose that information (Article 6);
- (c) provides that the landing of such a consignment, the landing of which is prohibited by this Order, may be authorised by licence (Article 7);
- (d) makes a contravention of the Order or the wilful obstruction or impeding of an inspector of the Department of Agriculture or a person authorised by such an inspector an offence punishable on summary conviction by a fine not exceeding £2,000 (Article 8).

Any person who lands parsley in contravention of this Order, with intent to evade the prohibition contained in it, is also guilty of an offence under Section 50(2) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (c. 2) and may be detained. A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a penalty of £2,000 or of three times the value of the goods, whichever is the greater, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to both, or, on conviction on indictment, to a penalty of any amount, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to both.
