EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations further amend the Social Security (Adjudication) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 ("the principal regulations"). They correspond to provision contained in regulations made by the Secretary of State for Social Security in relation to Great Britain and accordingly, by virtue of section 10(2) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 3 to, the Social Security Act 1980 (c. 30), are not subject to the requirement of section 10(1) of that Act for prior reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.

Article 65A(1) of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 ("the 1986 Order") is one of the enabling provisions under which these regulations are made. It is inserted by Article 20 of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 ("the 1989 Order") and brought into operation by virtue of Article 1(3) of that Order on 23rd August 1989.

Regulation 2 amends regulation 42 of the principal regulations so as to enable recrudescence questions to be considered where no award has been made but disablement has been assessed at one per cent. or more.

Regulation 3 amends regulation 53 of the principal regulations so as to provide for the alteration of the age limit from 75 to 80 in the context of medical questions and mobility allowance. It is consequential on the raising of the age limit for a mobility allowance from 75 to 80 by Article 10 of the 1989 Order.

Regulation 4 removes from regulation 64 of the principal regulations (questions not immediately determinable) the provision dealing with seasonal workers and is consequential upon the revocation of regulation 43 of the Income Support (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 (notional earnings of seasonal workers). It substitutes the word "employment" for "suitable employment" in consequence of a similar substitution in section 20(1) of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Act 1975 by Article 14(1)(b) of the 1989 Order. It also provides for the determination of a claim for income support where the question whether a person is treated as actively seeking employment cannot be immediately determined.

Regulation 5 provides that where certain specified amounts are applicable to a claimant for income support, any changes in those amounts are to be taken into account on a review by an adjudication officer or on a reference by him, by an appeal tribunal and Article 65A of the 1986 Order (which applies generally where the component rates of income support are altered) is not to apply to those awards.
