EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations substitute the Social Security (Severe Disablement Allowance (Amendment) and Councillors Consequential) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1989 and are being issued free of charge. They correct an omission by prescribing payments for the purposes of determining a councillor's allowance (regulation 3).

The regulations are made under or are otherwise consequential upon paragraph 2 of Schedule 8 to the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1989. The said paragraph 2 of Schedule 8 is brought into operation on 9th October 1989 by Article 2(f) of the Social Security (1989 Order) (Commencement No. 1) Order (Northern Ireland) 1989 (S.R. 1989 No. 353 (C. 14)).

These regulations include amendments to the Social Security (Severe Disablement Allowance) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1984. They provide that where a person is a councillor, he shall be treated as incapable of work and therefore entitled to severe disablement allowance, although on the relevant day he works as a councillor (regulation 2(3)). They also provide that where a councillor is entitled to a councillor's allowance in respect of any week, the amount by which it exceeds the sum specified for the time being in regulation 3(3) of the Social Security (Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1984 shall be deducted from any severe disablement allowance to which he is entitled in respect of that week, and that the balance, if any, shall be payable (regulation 2(4)).

They also provide for the calculation of a councillor's allowance where the councillor is paid his allowance otherwise than weekly (regulation 4).

The regulations correspond to provision contained in regulations made by the Secretary of State for Social Security in relation to Great Britain and accordingly, by virtue of section 10(2) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 3 to, the Social Security Act 1980 (c. 30), are not subject to the requirement of section 10(1) of that Act for prior reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.
