PART III

CARE COMPONENT

Qualifying period for the care component after an interval

6.—(1) The period prescribed for the purposes of section 37ZB(2)(a)(ii) is a period of 3 months ending on the day on which the person was last entitled to the care component or to attendance allowance where that day falls not more than 2 years before the date on which entitlement to the care component would begin, or would have begun but for any regulations made under Article 52(1)(l)

of the 1986 Order (which enables regulations to provide for the day on which entitlement to benefit is to begin or end).

(2) Except in a case to which paragraph (3) applies, this regulation shall apply to a person to whom paragraph 3 or 7 of Schedule 1 refers as if for the reference to 3 months in paragraph (1) there were substituted a reference to 6 months.

(3) Paragraph (1) and not paragraph (2), shall apply to those persons referred to in paragraph (2) who, on the day before they attained the age of 65, had already completed the period of 3 months referred to in paragraph (1).

 - (i) he undergoes renal dialysis 2 or more times a week, and
 - (ii) the renal dialysis which he undergoes is of a type which normally requires the attendance or supervision of another person during the period of the dialysis, or
 - (iii) because of the particular circumstances of his case, he in fact requires another person during the period of dialysis to attend in connection with his bodily functions, or to supervise him during the period of the dialysis, in order that he avoids substantial danger to himself; and
- (b) if, where he undergoes renal dialysis as an out-patient in a hospital or similar institution, being treatment provided under the Order, no member of the staff of that hospital or institution assists with or supervises that dialysis.

(3) Paragraph (2)(b) does not apply for the purpose of determining whether a person is to be taken to satisfy any of the conditions mentioned in paragraph (1) during the period of 3 months referred to in section 37ZB(2)(a)(i).

(4) Except to the extent that provision is made in paragraph (2)(b), a person who undergoes treatment by way of renal dialysis as an out-patient in a hospital or similar institution, being treatment provided under the Order, shall not be taken solely by reason of the fact that he undergoes such dialysis as satisfying any of the conditions mentioned in section 37ZB(1)(a) to (c).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations are consequential upon the coming into operation of the Disability Living Allowance and Disability Working Allowance (Northern Ireland) Order 1991 (“the 1991 Order”). Article 3 of the 1991 Order introduces a new benefit to be known as disability living allowance (“the allowance”) which consists of two components; a care component and a mobility component.

Part I of the regulations relates to their citation, commencement and interpretation (regulation 1).

Part II contains general provisions which relate to both components of the allowance. It sets out the conditions as to residence and presence in Northern Ireland which a person must satisfy to qualify for the allowance (regulation 2); contains provisions relating to those persons aged 65 and over (regulation 3 and Schedule 1); sets out the rate at which benefit is payable (regulation 4); and relates to late claims by a person who was previously entitled to benefit (regulation 5).

Part III relates to the care component of the allowance. It specifies the qualifying period for those whose entitlement to that component has been interrupted (regulation 6); makes provision for those people who undergo treatment by way of renal dialysis (regulation 7); and imposes restrictions on the payment of benefit where a person is accommodated in a hospital or is in certain accommodation where the cost is or may be, met wholly or partly out of public or local funds (regulations 8 to 10).

Part IV relates to the mobility component of the allowance. It specifies the qualifying period for those whose entitlement to that component has been interrupted (regulation 11); specifies the circumstances in which a person is to be treated as unable or virtually unable to walk, being both blind and deaf, having severe mental impairment or having severe behavioural problems (regulation 12); and provides for the entitlement to the mobility component of certain persons eligible for invalid carriages (regulation 13 and Schedule 2). Regulation 14, with Schedule 3, specifies provisions which are to be revoked.

The regulations make in relation to Northern Ireland only provision corresponding to provision contained in regulations made by the Secretary of State for Social Security in relation to Great Britain and accordingly, by virtue of section 10(2) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 3 to, the Social Security Act 1980 (c. 30), are not subject to the requirement of section 10(1) of that Act for prior reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.

Sections 37ZA to 37ZE are some of the enabling provisions under which these regulations are made. They are inserted by Article 3(2) of the 1991 Order and are brought into operation on 6th April 1992 by virtue of Article 2 of the Disability Living Allowance and Disability Working Allowance (1991 Order) (Commencement No. 2) Order (Northern Ireland) 1991 (S.R. 1991 No. 501 (c.24)).
