EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

Article 9(1) of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 1985 ("the 1985 Order") provides that it is an offence within a designated district for any person being a traveller, as defined in Article 11, to station a caravan for the purpose of residing for any period on any land forming part of a road, or on any other unoccupied land, or on any occupied land without the consent of the occupier.

This Order designates the district of Strabane as a district to which the said Article 9 applies.

Under Article 9(3) of the 1985 Order a person guilty of an offence under Article 9 is liable to a fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale (£50·00 but subject to review) and if the offence is continued after the conviction he will be guilty of a further offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding £5 for every day on which the offence is continued.

Under Article 9(8) it is the duty of a designated council to take steps to inform travelling people within its district of the making and effect of this Order.
