EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations amend the Disability Working Allowance (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1992, the Family Credit (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987, the Housing Benefit (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 and the Income Support (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987.

On 25th February 1993, two new Trusts, the Independent Living (Extension) Fund and the Independent Living (1993) Fund were established. The former Fund enables severely disabled people to continue to receive cash payments when the Independent Living Fund comes to an end. The latter Fund enables the most severely disabled people to get help to enable them to live independently in the community.

These regulations provide that payments from those Funds are to be disregarded in determining the entitlement of a person to disability working allowance, family credit, housing benefit and income support.

In so far as these regulations are required, for the purposes of regulation 4, to be referred to the Social Security Advisory Committee under section 149(2) of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 (c. 8) ('the 1992 Act'), after agreement by the Social Security Advisory Committee they have not been so referred by virtue of section 150(1)(b) of that Act. Otherwise the regulations make in relation to Northern Ireland only provision corresponding to provision contained in regulations made by the Secretary of State for Social Security in relation to Great Britain and accordingly, by virtue of section 149(3) of, and paragraph 10 of Schedule 5 to, the 1992 Act, are not subject to the requirement of section 149(2) of that Act for prior reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.
