NOTES

Read these notes carefully before completing the form

1. Registration requirement

Every Part XXIII company setting up a place of business in Northern Ireland must register.

If a "Place of Business" is being established then FORM 641 must be used; if a branch is being registered then this form must be used.

A company must register all of its branches.

The requirement to register applies to any limited company which is incorporated outside the United Kingdom and which establishes a branch in Northern Ireland. Great Britain companies, being within the UK, are not required to register any branches in Northern Ireland. They are, however, required to register as having a place of business by submitting form 641 when they set up business in Northern Ireland.

2. Completion of form BR1

If this is the first registration of a branch of a Part XXIII company in the UK, ALL the relevant details of the form must be completed. If a previous branch of the company has already been registered in the UK, and has not closed, registration of the second and any subsequent branches need not complete Part A (Company details) (provided any alterations to those details have been updated), but must complete part B (Branch details).

The forms should be delivered to the Registrar with supporting documents within 1 month of having opened the branch.

3. "Legal Form"

The details of the company's legal form must be disclosed. This includes whether the company is a private or public company, whether it is limited, and, if so, the manner of limitation.

4. "Governing Law"

A company which is not incorporated in an EC member state must state the law under which it is incorporated. This means the relevant rules or legislation which regulate the incorporation of companies in that state: e.g. "Companies Act of (state) 19XX"

5. Names

A Part XXIII company wishing to register its corporate name is subject to the same regulations as Northern Ireland companies. Accordingly, any name which a Part XXIII company wishes to use may be unacceptable or only permissible with the approval of the Department of Economic Development. A company which is served a notice to this effect may then complete form 644(4)(a) giving another name, approved by the Department of Economic Development, under which it proposes carrying on business in Northern Ireland.

Notes (continued)

- (b) If the translation was made outside the United Kingdom, by
- (i) a notary public;
  - (ii) a person authorised in the place where the translation was made to administer an oath;
  - (iii) any of the British officials mentioned in section 6 of the Commissioners for Oaths Act 1889;
  - (iv) a person certified by a person mentioned above known to him to be competent to translate the document into English.

10. Directors and secretary's details

"Director" includes any person who occupies the position of director regardless of what name he is called.

For an individual, show the full names, NOT INITIALS, together with any previous names. However, previous names need not be given in the case of

- a married woman, the name by which she was known prior to marriage;
- any former name which has been changed or disused since the age of 18, OR for at least 20 years;
- a peer, or an individual normally known by a title, you may state that title instead of the name by which that person was known before adopting the title.

If the director or secretary is a corporation or Scottish firm, show the corporate or firm name on the surname line.

Addresses

Give the usual residential address

In the case of a corporation or Scottish firm, give the registered or principal office address.

11. Branch Address

Give the address of the principal place of business of the branch.

6. Delivery of documents in respect of more than one branch.

If the constitutional documents and last accounts of the company have been delivered in respect of another branch in the UK, prior to registration of this branch, the company may rely on these deliveries rather than delivering another set of documents. The company must mark the appropriate boxes, stating the branch in respect of which those documents have already been delivered, the branch number, and the place at which they were registered.

If the company particulars have been delivered in respect of another branch of the company in Northern Ireland prior to registration of this branch (and any alterations have been updated), the company may rely on this delivery, rather than re-disclosing the particulars on this form.

7. Delivery of documents where previous place of business has been registered.

Where the constitutional documents, and the particulars of the directors and secretary(ies) have been delivered in respect of a former place of business in Northern Ireland (and changes to those documents or particulars have been updated), the company may rely on those deliveries rather than re-delivering the documents or re-disclosing those particulars in respect of the branch.

8. Certification of constitutional documents.

A copy of the document(s) constituting or defining the company must be certified in the place of incorporation to be a true copy by:

- (a) an official of the Government in whose custody the original is committed; or
- (b) a notary public; or
- (c) an officer of the company on oath taken before
  - (i) a person having authority in that place to administer an oath; or
  - (ii) any of the British officials mentioned in section 6 of the Commissioners for Oaths Act 1889.

9. Translations

If the constitutional documents of the company or the latest accounts and reports are not written in the English language, they must be accompanied by a certified translation. This must be done in the following manner:

- (a) If the translation is made in the United Kingdom, by :
  - (i) a notary public in any part of the United Kingdom;
  - (ii) a solicitor (if the translation was made in Scotland), a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature of England and Wales (if it was made in England or Wales), or a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature of Northern Ireland (if it was made in Northern Ireland); or
  - (iii) a person certified by a person mentioned above to be known to him to be competent to translate the document into English; or

12. Business and Date of commencement.

State the date on which the branch was opened and give brief details of the business of the branch.

13. Photocopies

If there is insufficient space on the form for details about directors, secretaries or permanent representatives, you may photocopy the appropriate pages.

14. Completion of form.

The completed form should be signed by an officer or permanent representative of the company and delivered to the Registrar, together with any supporting documents within one month of the branch being established.

15. Delivery of winding-up, insolvency etc. particulars.

If, at any time prior to the registration in Northern Ireland of the first branch of a Part XXIII company, the company has become subject to winding up, insolvency or similar proceedings, and remains subject to those proceedings, the company must at the same time as delivering Form BR1, also deliver Form 6520(1), 6520(3), 652P(1) (as appropriate).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations prescribe forms to be used in filing particulars with the registrar of companies in connection with the new regime for the registration of branches of Part XXIII companies, introduced by the Part XXIII Companies and Credit and Financial Institutions (Branch Disclosure) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1993 (S.R. 1993 No. 198).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

These also prescribe amended forms (Forms 641, 644(4)(a) and 644(4)(b)) in connection with the registration of a place of business of a Part XXIII company pursuant to Article 641, and the registration of names of Part XXIII Companies. There is, however, a transitional provision permitting the continued use of the existing forms for a period of 12 months following the commencement of these regulations.

The Regulations also provide how certain translations of documents, required to be filed with the registrar of companies in respect of the branches of Part XXIII companies, are to be certified.
