“tribunal” means an industrial tribunal established in pursuance of the Industrial Tribunals Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965(a) or any other tribunal which, under section 6 of the Fair Employment (Northern Ireland) Act 1989(b), has the jurisdiction, and exercises the powers, of such a tribunal.

(3) The Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954(c) shall apply to these Regulations as it applies to a Measure of the Northern Ireland Assembly.

Abolition of limits on awards under the 1976 Order

2. The provisions set out in the Schedule are repealed.

Interest in awards under the sex discrimination legislation

3.—(1) Where, at any time after these Regulations come into operation, a tribunal makes an award under the sex discrimination legislation—

- (a) it may, subject to and in accordance with these Regulations, include interest on any sums so awarded; and
- (b) it shall consider whether to do so, without the need for any application by a party in the proceedings.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1) shall prevent the tribunal from making an award or decision, with regard to interest, in terms which have been agreed between the parties.

Rate of interest

4.—(1) Interest shall—

- (a) subject to paragraph (2), be applied at the same rate as is in force, during the period for which it is to be calculated, in relation to decrees in the county court;
- (b) be calculated as simple interest which accrues from day to day.

(2) Where the rate of interest applied under paragraph (1)(a) has varied during a period for which the interest is to be calculated, the tribunal may, if it so desires in the interests of simplicity, apply such median or average of those rates as seems to it appropriate.

Calculation of interest

5. In this regulation and regulations 6 and 7, in relation to any award under the sex discrimination legislation—

“day of calculation” means the day on which the amount of interest included on the sums so awarded is calculated by the tribunal;

“the mid-point date” means the date half-way through the period beginning on the date of the contravention or act of discrimination to which the award relates and ending on the day of calculation (both dates inclusive).

(b) 1989 c. 32

(c) 1954 c. 33 (N.I.)

6. Interest shall not be included on any sum awarded under the sex discrimination legislation in relation to a loss or matter occurring after the day of calculation, or in respect of any time before the contravention or act of discrimination to which the award relates.

7.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3)—

(a) in the case of any sum awarded under the sex discrimination legislation for injury to feelings, any interest included shall be for the period beginning on the date of the contravention or act of discrimination to which the award relates and ending on the day of calculation (both dates inclusive);

(b) in the case of all other sums of damages or compensation in the award (other than any sum referred to in regulation 6), and all arrears of remuneration awarded under the sex discrimination legislation, any interest included shall be for the period beginning on the mid-point date and ending on the day of calculation (both dates inclusive).

(2) Where any payment has been made before the day of calculation to the complainant by or on behalf of the respondent in respect of any loss or matter to which an award under the sex discrimination legislation relates, interest in respect of a corresponding part of the award shall be calculated as if the references in paragraph (1), and in the definition of “mid-point date” in regulation 5, to the day of calculation were to the date on which the payment was made.

(3) Where a tribunal is of the opinion that in relation to an award under the sex discrimination legislation—

(a) there are exceptional circumstances, whether relating to the case as a whole or to a particular sum in the award, and

(b) those circumstances have the effect that serious injustice would be caused if interest were to be awarded in respect of the period or periods in paragraphs (1) or (2),

it may—

(i) calculate interest, or as the case may be, interest on the particular sum, for such different period, or

(ii) calculate interest for such different periods in respect of various sums in the award, as it considers appropriate in the circumstances, having regard to the provisions of these Regulations.

Decision in writing

8.—(1) A tribunal’s written statement of reasons for its decision to make an award under the sex discrimination legislation shall contain a statement of the total amount of any interest included thereon and, unless this amount has been agreed between the parties, either a table showing how it has been calculated or a description of the manner in which it has been calculated.

(2) A tribunal’s written statement of reasons shall include reasons for any decision not to award interest.

Appeal

9. Article 31 of the Industrial Training (Northern Ireland) Order 1984(a) (appeal to the Court of Appeal), shall apply in relation to an appeal on a point of law from a decision of a tribunal relating to the inclusion or not of interest on an award under the sex discrimination legislation as it applies in relation to such an appeal from any other decision of the tribunal relating to that award.

Interest for period after award

10. In relation to an award under the sex discrimination legislation (including interest thereon)—

- (a) the 1990 Order shall apply as if, in Article 3, references to the calculation day were references to the day immediately following the relevant decision day and accordingly, subject to sub-paragraph (b), interest shall accrue under that Order from that day onwards (including that day); but
- (b) notwithstanding sub-paragraph (a), interest shall not be payable by virtue of the 1990 Order if payment of the full amount of the award (including interest thereon) is made within 14 days after the relevant decision day.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Department of Economic Development for Northern Ireland on 9th December 1993.

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations are made for the purpose of ensuring that the remedies available under legislation in Northern Ireland relating to sex discrimination and to equal pay for men and women comply with the requirements of Council Directives 1975/117/EEC(a) and 1976/207/EEC(b) (following the judgement of the European Court of Justice in Case No. C271/91 — Marshall v Southampton and South-West Hampshire Area Health Authority (No. 2)). They come into operation on 17th December 1993.

Regulation 2 and the Schedule repeal Article 65(2) of the Sex Discrimination (Northern Ireland) Order 1976, which provided that an award of compensation by an industrial tribunal under Part III of that Order could not exceed a specified sum. They also make a number of other minor and consequential repeals.

The remaining provisions of the Regulations relate to cases where an industrial tribunal makes "an award under the sex discrimination legislation", defined in regulation 1(2) as an award under the Equal Pay Act (Northern Ireland) 1970 of arrears of remuneration or damages or an order under Article 65(1)(b) of the Sex Discrimination (Northern Ireland) Order 1976 for payment of compensation.

Regulation 3 enables a tribunal which makes such an award to include a sum by way of interest on the amount awarded. Regulation 4 provides that such interest is to be calculated as simple interest which accrues from day to day, and prescribes the rates at which interest is to be calculated.

Regulations 5 to 7 contain other rules for the calculation of interest. There is also provision for a tribunal to depart from the calculation rules where it is of the opinion that there are exceptional circumstances which have the effect that serious injustice would be done if it were to apply those rules. Regulation 8 provides that written details must be given of the calculation of interest and that reasons must be given if no interest is awarded. Regulation 9 ensures that an appeal will lie to the Court of Appeal on any question of law relating to a decision to award or not to award interest.

Regulation 10 alters the effect of the Industrial Tribunals (Interest) (Northern Ireland) Order 1990 as it applies to an award under the sex discrimination legislation (including any interest awarded under regulation 3). In relation to such an award, interest will begin to accrue from the day after the day on which the tribunal's decision is sent to the parties (and not from a date 42 days later), but no interest will be payable under the Order if the full amount of the award is paid to the complainant within 14 days after the decision is sent out.
