- (a) Section 13A was inserted by paragraph 15 of Schedule 5 to the Environmental Protection Act 1990 c. 43
  - (b) As amended by section 100(3) of the Environmental Protection Act 1990; see also paragraph 20(a) of Schedule 5 to that Act
  - (c) 1960 c. 34

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

Section 11A of the Radioactive Substances Act 1960 provides for the appointment for the purposes of the Act of a chief inspector for Northern Ireland. Section 13A(1)(d) of the 1960 Act imposes a duty on the chief inspector to keep and make available to the public, copies of certain documents including such records of convictions under Section 13 of the Act as may be prescribed in regulations. (Sections 11A, and 13A(1)(d) were inserted by section 100(1), and paragraph 15 of Schedule 5 respectively of the Environmental Protection Act 1990).

These regulations prescribe the records of convictions, copies of which must be kept and made available by the chief inspector for inspection by the public. The records must, for each conviction, specify the offence, the name of the offender, the date of conviction, the penalty imposed and the name of the court.

The public are entitled to be provided with a copy of the records on payment of a reasonable fee.
