EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations further amend the Royal Ulster Constabulary Reserve (Full-Time) (Appointment and Conditions of Service) Regulations 1988 (the principal regulations) and revoke a large number of provisions relating to housing payments and other miscellaneous allowances.

Regulation 4 reduces the length of unplanned overtime counting towards the overtime allowance payable to sergeants and constables; regulation 5 reduces the notice threshold for payment of rest day working allowance from 28 to 14 days, removes the additional entitlement to an extra rest day (but increases the time off that may be taken in lieu of the allowance) where there was less than 8 days' notice, and reduces the length at which a short period worked on a rest day counts if it is continuous with normal duty.

The amendment made by regulation 6 is consequential upon the revocation of provisions about housing payments.

Regulation 7 makes medical charges reimbursable only if they arise from an injury received on duty, a restriction which previously applied only to officers first appointed after 30th November 1991.

Regulation 8 is consequential upon regulation 5(f).

Regulation 9 revokes provisions relating to allowances of various kinds, including payments in respect of housing where it was not provided free of rent.

For officers actually or potentially entitled to housing or housing payments immediately before the commencement of these regulations whose service thereafter is uninterrupted, or is interrupted only by central or overseas service or unpaid leave, equivalent entitlements to "replacement allowances" are provided by paragraphs 1 to 7 of the Schedule (given effect by regulation 10). Paragraph 8 preserves for such officers the possibility of limited reimbursement of removal expenses in respect of a period extending beyond the first 26 weeks following a move.
