1996 No. 16

Diseases of Fish (Control) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996

Failure to comply with control measures

12. If any person fails to comply with the requirements of any control measures imposed by these Regulations or by a notice served under these Regulations then, without prejudice to any proceedings consequent upon such failure, an inspector may enter on any premises to which such control measures relate and take or cause to be taken such steps as appear to the inspector to be necessary either to ensure compliance with those control measures or to remedy the consequences of the failure to carry them out, and all reasonable costs of taking such steps shall be recoverable by the Department from the person on whom the duty to comply, or to ensure compliance, with the control measures was imposed.
