
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

1996 No. 269

JURIES

Juries Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996

Made - - - - 2nd July 1996

To be laid before Parliament

Coming into operation 1st August 1996

The Lord Chancellor, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Articles 2(2), 4(3), 4(8) and 30(1) of the Juries (Northern Ireland) Order 1996(1) hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Juries Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996 and shall come into operation on 1st August 1996.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations “the Order” means the Juries (Northern Ireland) Order 1996.

Form of return, form of summons and accompanying notices

3.—(1) For the purposes of Article 4(3) and (4) of the Order the Notice to Jurors shall be in the form set out in Form 1 in Schedule 1 and the Form of Return shall be in the form set out in Form 2 in Schedule 1.

(2) For the purposes of Article 8 of the Order the Summons to Jurors shall be in the form set out in Form 3 in Schedule 1 and the Notice to Accompany a Jury Summons shall be in the form set out in Form 4 in Schedule 1.

Arrangement of Divisional Jurors List

4.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) the names of jurors contained in the Divisional Jurors List shall be arranged and numbered as they appear chronologically in the order of the list sent to the Juries Officer in accordance with Article 4(3) of the Order.

(2) The Divisional Jurors List for the division of Fermanagh and Tyrone shall be divided into two parts one part of which shall contain the names of those who reside in the petty sessions districts

(1) S.I. 1996/1141 (N.I. 6); Article 2(2) is an interpretation provision and is recited because of the meaning assigned to the word “prescribed”

of Cookstown, Dungannon, Strabane and Omagh and the other part the names of those who reside in the petty sessions district of Fermanagh.

(3) The Divisional Jurors List divided into two parts under paragraph (2) shall be arranged and numbered so that in each part the names of jurors appear chronologically in the order of the list sent to the Juries Officer in accordance with Article 4(3) of the Order.

(4) In this Regulation “petty sessions district” means a petty sessions district specified under Article 11(2) of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981(2).

Balloting of jurors

5.—(1) For the purposes of Article 12(1) of the Order the jury shall be balloted for in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) An officer of the court shall write the name of each person to be included in the ballot together with his address and any number allocated to him by the Juries Officer on a piece of card which shall be as nearly as possible the same size as all other pieces of card to be used for that purpose.

(3) In open court an officer of the court shall place the pieces of card referred to in paragraph (2) in a container, shake them together and draw out one after the other as many names as are required to provide a full jury taking into account all challenges and stand-bys.

Revocations and transitional provision

6. The Statutory Rules of Northern Ireland listed in Schedule 2 are hereby revoked to the extent specified in the third column except in respect of Notices to persons on list sent to the juries officer and Forms of Return served before 1st August 1996.

Dated 2nd July 1996

Mackay of Clashfern, C.

SCHEDULE 1

Regulation 3

FORM 1 JURY NOTICE Article 4(3) and (4) of the Juries (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 Regulation 3(1) and Form 1 in the Schedule to the Juries Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996

(Here state the name, address and reference number of the person to whom the Notice is to be sent.)

(Here state The Juries Officer and the address and telephone number of the Court Office.)

PURPOSE OF THIS NOTICE

In accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 4 of the Juries (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 your name has been selected for jury service for the year beginning 1st September next.

You are liable for jury service if you are aged between 18 and 70 and registered as an elector subject to the following exceptions:

You may be:

- (a) not qualified for jury service;
- (b) disqualified for jury service;
- (c) ineligible for jury service; or
- (d) excusable from jury service as of right and claim that right.

THE PROCEDURE

Unless you fall within one of the exceptions mentioned in (b) to (d) above your name will now be included on the Divisional Jurors List from which panels of jurors will be drawn throughout the next year. If your name is included in the panel you may therefore be called upon during the coming year to serve as a juror. If you are called upon you will receive a jury summons which will tell you the time and the place at which you are to attend.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO NOW

You are required to fill in the enclosed Form of Return to the best of your knowledge and belief and return it to me WITHIN 14 DAYS. Failure to do so without lawful excuse or the wilful making of a false statement of any matter specified in the Form of Return is an offence punishable by a fine of up to £1,000.

You may be:

- (a) not qualified for jury service;
- (b) disqualified for jury service;
- (c) ineligible for jury service; or
- (d) excusable from jury service as of right.

You will find a list of those included in each of these categories below.

You are advised to read the list carefully and decide whether you fall within any of those categories. If you are excusable from jury service as of right and wish to claim that right you should claim your right to be excused on the form.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

It is an offence knowingly to serve on a jury in the Crown Court if you are not qualified for jury service or in any court if you are disqualified for jury service. In either case this is punishable by a fine of up to £5,000.

EXCUSAL FROM JURY SERVICE AND DEFERRAL OF JURY SERVICE

If you are summoned to attend for jury service the judge has certain powers to defer your service until a later date or to excuse you for that sitting or in respect of a particular trial or period of time if you have a good reason.

You may, if you wish, make an application to defer your service or to be excused for a period of time or in respect of a particular trial but not at this stage — only after you receive the jury summons.

In particular, the judge:

- (a) must excuse those described in the list in Section C of this notice;
- (b) may divide the panel of jurors into sections and excuse those in one or more of the sections on specified days;
- (c) may excuse a person who applies for excusal for a period of time or in respect of a particular trial if he is satisfied there is good reason (you will be given an opportunity to do this if you receive a summons);
- (d) may defer a person's service and amend the summons accordingly (but this power may only be exercised once in respect of each jury summons).

Juries Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996

(Here state the name, address and reference number of the person to whom the Summons is to be sent.)

(Here state The Juries Officer and the address and telephone number of the Court Office.)

You are required to attend as a juror at (name and address of courthouse) at (time) on (here state first day required) and to attend until your jury service is complete.

Please bring this summons to court with you.

Failure to attend the court on the date and time notified above or leaving the court thereafter without permission is punishable by a fine of up to £1,000.

You must attend the court pursuant to this summons in any case but you should also read the enclosed notice and establish if you fall within any of the categories of:

- (a) not qualified for jury service;
- (b) disqualified for jury service;
- (c) ineligible for jury service; or
- (d) excusable from jury service as of right.

You may also ask to be excused from jury service in respect of the period of this sitting or for a particular period or particular trial if you have a good reason (see Part II overleaf).

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

1. Attend the court on the date and time mentioned above. Bring this summons with you (remember to sign Part III below). Remember you are liable to a fine if you do not attend.
2. If either Part I or Part II below applies to you complete the section below and send it to the Juries Officer at the court.

Date when bail was granted:

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

PART II TO BE COMPLETED BY THOSE SEEKING EXCUSAL FROM SERVICE OR TO HAVE JURY SERVICE DEFERRED FOR GOOD REASON

Although this summons requires you to attend for jury service the judge has certain powers to defer your service until a later date or to excuse you for this sitting or in respect of a particular trial or period of time if you have a good reason.

You may, if you wish, make an application to defer your service or to be excused for a period of time or in respect of a particular trial but only after you receive the jury summons.

In particular, the judge:

- (a) must excuse those described in the list in Section C of the enclosed lists,
- (b) may divide the panel of jurors into sections and excuse those in one or more of the sections on specified days;
- (c) may excuse a person who applies for excusal for a period of time or in respect of a particular trial if he is satisfied there is good reason;
- (d) may defer a person's service and amend the summons accordingly (but this power may only be exercised once in respect of each jury summons).

What is your reason for seeking excusal from jury service or to have your service deferred?

When will you be available for jury service?

You will be notified of the decision but remember unless you hear to the contrary you must attend pursuant to this summons — you may be liable for a fine if you do not.

PART III DECLARATION: TO BE COMPLETED BY ALL PERSONS

I declare that the particulars given and the statements made on this form are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
