(4) Paragraph (3)(d) applies subject to the conditions that the rules of any appropriate scheme established by such a body require that the resources of the scheme be invested with an institution such as is mentioned in paragraph (3)(c), and further provide that the rights arising from such investments, in so far as they are attributable to the contributions made by or on behalf of a member, shall be held by that body on trust for that member.

Issue of appropriate scheme certificates

5. When the Department has determined that a personal pension scheme is, or at any time was, an appropriate scheme, it shall issue an appropriate scheme certificate so stating to the person who applied for that certificate.

Requirement to give the Department information

6. The administrators of the scheme shall furnish the Department—
- (a) with such reports, accounts and other documents and information relating to the scheme to which the certificate relates, in such manner and at such times as may be reasonably required by the Department;

 - (iv) any change of circumstances affecting the scheme as the Department may have required them to notify,
 as soon as practical after its occurrence.

Cancellation, variation and surrender of an appropriate scheme certificate

7. An appropriate scheme certificate may be cancelled, varied or surrendered where there is any change in respect of the information which was provided by virtue of regulations 4 and 6.

Applications for the variation of, and to surrender, appropriate scheme certificates

- 8.—(1) Every application for the variation of, or to surrender, an appropriate scheme certificate—
- (a) shall be made in writing to the Department by the administrators of the scheme;
 - (b) shall be made only after notices of intention to make that application have been given by the administrators in accordance with paragraph (2) except where (in the case of an application for the variation of an appropriate scheme certificate) the Department dispenses with this requirement; and

- (2) Notices of intention to make an application such as is mentioned in paragraph (1) shall be given in writing to—

- (3) Notices given under this regulation shall specify—
- (a) the name of the scheme and the address where it is administered;

- (b) the date from which it is desired that the variation or surrender shall have effect; and
 - (c) where the application is to surrender an appropriate scheme certificate, any arrangements made or proposed for the preservation or transfer of protected rights under the scheme.
- (4) Every person who makes an application under this regulation shall supply such other documents and information as the Department may reasonably require.

Cancellation of an appropriate scheme certificate

9. For the purpose of section 30(8) (no cancellation of an appropriate scheme certificate shall have effect from a date earlier than that on which the cancellation is made except in prescribed circumstances) the prescribed circumstance is where the Department considers that the scheme has failed to satisfy the requirements for continuing to be an appropriate scheme before the date cancellation is made and in such a case the date of effect of the cancellation—

- (a) shall not be a date other than 6th April in any year; and
- (b) shall not be earlier than 6th April in the tax year in which the Department considers that the scheme first failed to satisfy those requirements.

Notice under section 40(1)

10.—(1) A notice under section 40(1) (notice of earner’s chosen scheme) shall be given in writing in such form as the Department may in its discretion accept.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), the date specified in a notice under section 40(1) as the date from which the scheme is to be the earner’s chosen scheme shall, subject to paragraph (3), be 6th April in the tax year notice is given or 6th April in the next tax year.

(3) Where notice is given by 17th May in a tax year it may specify 6th April in the preceding tax year.

(4) In a case where a scheme (“the first scheme”) was an earner’s chosen scheme on the date with effect from which the first scheme ceased to be an appropriate scheme, the date specified in a notice under section 40(1) as the date from which another scheme (“the second scheme”) is to be the earner’s chosen scheme may be the date with effect from which the first scheme ceased to be an appropriate scheme (whether or not that date is 6th April), if that date is not earlier than whichever is the earlier of—

- (a) the date 6 months earlier than that on which the Department receives the notice; and
- (b) 6th April in the tax year in which the Department receives the notice.

Notice under section 40(2)

11.—(1) A notice under section 40(2) (cancellation of a notice given under section 40(1)) shall be given in writing and in such form as the Department may in its discretion accept.

(2) The date specified in a notice under section 40(2) shall, subject to paragraph (3), be 6th April in the tax year in which the Department receives the notice or 6th April in the next tax year.

(3) Where notice under section 40(2) is given by the earner and not by the trustees or managers of the scheme the date shall be at least a year later than the date specified in the notice given under section 40(1).

Circumstances in which minimum contributions are not to be paid

12.—(1) Minimum contributions shall not be paid in respect of an earner for the tax year or any part of the tax year in which that earner—

- (a) reaches pensionable age; or
- (b) dies and in which he would have reached pensionable age.

(2) Where effect has been given to the earner's protected rights under section 24(17) (ways of giving effect to protected rights), minimum contributions shall not, except as provided by paragraphs (3) to (9), be paid in respect of the period during which the scheme was the earner's chosen scheme.

(3) Where effect has been given to the earner's protected rights by the making of a transfer payment to another appropriate scheme which has become the earner's chosen scheme or a money purchase contracted-out scheme, the minimum contributions shall be paid to the trustees or managers of that scheme.

(4) Where effect has been given to the earner's protected rights by the making of a transfer payment to a salary related contracted-out scheme or an overseas scheme and the Department becomes aware, as a consequence of evidence in respect of the earner's age being brought to the Department's attention, that an additional amount of minimum contributions would have been payable had the Department been aware of that evidence, that additional amount of minimum contributions shall be paid to the trustees or managers of that scheme.

(5) Where effect has been given to the earner's protected rights by the purchase of an annuity or by the provision by the scheme of a pension, and the amount of the minimum contributions in question is at least 10 times as great as the lower earnings limit for the tax year in which the Department becomes aware that minimum contributions are payable or would be payable, but for paragraph (2), those minimum contributions shall be paid (in the case of an annuity) to the insurance company from which the annuity has been purchased or (in the case of a pension) to the trustees or managers of the scheme.

(6) Where effect has been given to the earner's protected rights by the purchase of an annuity or by the provision by the scheme of a pension and—

- (a) the circumstances in paragraph (5) do not exist; and
- (b) minimum contributions are payable for the tax year or part of the tax year in which the earner died, those minimum contributions shall be paid to the earner's widow or widower, or if the earner died unmarried, they may at the Department's discretion be paid to any person.

(7) Where effect has been given to the earner's protected rights by the purchase of an annuity or by provision by the scheme of a pension and—

- (a) the circumstances in paragraph (5) do not exist; and
- (b) the Department becomes aware, as a consequence of evidence in respect of the earner's age being brought to the Department's attention, that an additional amount of minimum contributions would have been payable had the Department been aware of that evidence, that additional amount of minimum contributions shall be payable for any tax year before, or part of a tax year before, effect has been given to protected rights to the earner or the earner's widow or widower, or if the earner died unmarried, that amount may at the Department's discretion be paid to any person.

(8) Where effect has been given to the earner's protected rights by the provision of a lump sum, minimum contributions shall be payable to the earner or the earner's widow or widower, or if the earner died unmarried, they may at the Department's discretion be paid to any person.

(9) Where effect has been given to the earner's protected rights by the making of payments under an interim arrangement, minimum contributions shall continue to be payable to the trustees or managers of the earner's chosen scheme.

(17) Section 24 is amended by Articles 139 and 143(2) of, and paragraph 27 of Schedule 3 to, the Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1995

Manner of payment of minimum contributions

13. Minimum contributions shall be paid—

- (a) by automated credit transfer into a bank or building society account which relates to the relevant scheme and which accepts payments made by automated credit transfer; or
- (b) in such other manner as the Department may in its discretion approve.

Allocation of minimum contributions

14. A personal pension scheme can be an appropriate scheme only if the rules of the scheme provide that any minimum contributions falling to be applied so as to provide benefits in respect of a member are to be so applied from the date on which payment is made by the Department in accordance with regulation 13 and that such minimum contributions are to be allocated to that member's account within 3 months of that date.

Calculation or estimation of earnings

15.—(1) In relation to any tax year, the earnings of an earner shall be calculated or estimated, for the purposes of section 41(1)(18), on the basis mentioned in this regulation.

(3) In relation to any eligible tax week in a tax year the earnings of an earner shall be taken to be the amount calculated or estimated in accordance with paragraph (4) divided by the number of eligible tax weeks in that tax year, and in relation to any ineligible tax week they shall be taken to be nil.

(4) The formula to be applied shall be the formula set out in paragraph (5)(a), or, if it produces a smaller value for X, the formula set out in paragraph (5)(b), so however, that if the formula set out in paragraph (5)(a) produces a negative value for X, or if the value of P is nil, the value of X shall be taken to be nil.

(5) The formulae mentioned in paragraph (4) are—

(a) $X = P + R - S - 52L$; and

(b) $X = 53U - 52L$.

(6) In paragraph (7)—

(a) “primary Class 1 contributions” does not include primary Class 1 contributions which the earner, being a married woman or widow, is liable to make at a reduced rate in accordance with an election which she has made and which is still operative; and

(b) the reference to contributions as having been paid includes the case of contributions which are treated as having been paid under regulation 39 of the Social Security (Contributions) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1979(19) but does not include the case of contributions which are treated as not paid under regulation 38(1) and (2)(a)(20) of those Regulations.

(7) In this regulation—

(18) Section 41 is amended by Article 135(1) to (4) of, and paragraph 35 of Schedule 3 to, the Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1995

- (a) L is the lower earnings limit for the tax year in question;
- (b) P is the total earnings, in so far as the earnings for each week did not exceed U, paid to or for the benefit of the earner in relation to the tax year in question, in relation to which primary Class 1 contributions have been paid with respect to employments that are not contracted-out;
- (c) R is the total earnings, in so far as the earnings for each week did not exceed U, paid to or for the benefit of the earner in relation to the tax year in question, in relation to which primary Class 1 contributions have been paid with respect to employments that are contracted-out;
- (d) S is the total earnings, in so far as the earnings for each week equalled or exceeded L but did not exceed U, paid to or for the benefit of the earner in relation to the tax year in question, in relation to which primary Class 1 contributions have been paid with respect to employments that are contracted-out; and
- (e) U is the upper earnings limit for the tax year in question.

Calculation of minimum contributions

16.—(1) For the purposes of determining the appropriate age-related percentage for the purposes of section 41(1), the Department may require an earner to send documentary evidence of his date of birth.

(2) For the purposes of section 41B(2)(b) (disclosure of information held as to the age of an individual by the Department to trustees or managers of an appropriate scheme and such other persons as may be prescribed) the prescribed person shall be the person who is responsible for administering the scheme.

Adjustment of amount of minimum contributions

17. Where the amount of minimum contributions payable in respect of an earner in relation to a tax year would otherwise not be a whole number of pence, it shall be adjusted to the nearest whole number of pence, and any amount of half a penny or less shall be disregarded.

Cancellation of membership of interest-bearing account-funded appropriate schemes

18.—(1) A personal pension scheme which comprises an arrangement of the kind described in regulation 2(2)(c) can be an appropriate scheme only if it satisfies the requirements of paragraph (2).

(2) Without prejudice to any right of a member of the scheme, under section 156(1) or other rules of the scheme, the rules of the scheme shall include provision—

- (a) that, within 7 days of the day on which a person becomes a member of the scheme, he shall be served, personally or by ordinary post, with a notice in writing containing the information specified in Schedule 2 and a form of counter-notice; and
- (b) that, if the person signs the form of counter-notice or another document to the same effect and serves it—
 - (i) by ordinary post or otherwise,
 - (ii) not later than the fourteenth day after the notice referred to in sub-paragraph (a) is served on him,
 - (iii) on the person nominated, in that notice, to accept service of it, his membership of the scheme shall be cancelled and the contributions (if any) paid to the scheme by him or for him shall be returned, as soon as reasonably practicable, to the person who paid them.

(3) Where a counter-notice of the kind mentioned in paragraph (2)(b) is properly addressed, pre-paid and served by ordinary post, it shall be deemed to have been duly served on the day on which it was posted.

Transitional provision in respect of earnings

19. For the purposes of paying minimum contributions in respect of an employed earner for any period up to and including the tax year 1996-1997, regulations 16 and 17 of the Personal Pension Schemes (Appropriate Schemes) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1988⁽²¹⁾ shall continue to have effect as if regulations 15 and 20 of these Regulations had not come into operation.
