(2) Proceedings in respect of an offence under any other provision of these Regulations shall not be instituted except by SIB or by or with the consent of the Department or the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(3) SIB shall exercise the function conferred by this regulation of instituting proceedings subject to such conditions or restrictions as the Treasury may from time to time impose.

Offences: bodies corporate, partnerships and unincorporated associations

68.—(1) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by an investment company with variable capital is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director of the company, or a person purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the company, is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

This paragraph applies to a shadow director of an investment company with variable capital as it applies to a director of such a company.

(2) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by any body corporate other than an investment company with variable capital is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body, or a person purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) Where the affairs of any body corporate other than an investment company with variable capital are managed by its members, paragraph (2) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as it applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a director of a body corporate.

(4) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by a partnership is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a partner, he as well as the partnership is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(5) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any officer of the association or any member of its governing body, he as well as the association is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Time limits for prosecution of offences

(2) Paragraph (1) does not authorise a Magistrates' court to hear and determine a complaint charging the commission of a summary offence under these Regulations where the complaint is made more than three years after the commission of the offence.

(3) For the purposes of these Regulations a certificate by the relevant authority as to the date on which such evidence as is referred to above came to its knowledge is conclusive evidence of that fact.

(4) Nothing in this regulation affects proceedings within the time limits prescribed by Article 19(1) of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981(1) (the usual time limits for criminal proceedings).

(5) In this regulation “relevant authority”, in relation to an offence, means—

- (a) in a case where the person instituting proceedings in respect of the offence is a person who, by virtue of regulation 67(1) or (2), may not do so without the consent of the Department or the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Department or the Director of Public Prosecutions; and
- (b) in any other case where proceedings are instituted, the person instituting the proceedings.

(2) Proceedings for an offence alleged to have been committed under these Regulations by an unincorporated association shall be brought in the name of the association (and not in that of any of its members), and for the purposes of any such proceedings any court rules relating to the service of documents apply as in relation to a body corporate.

(3) Section 18 of the Criminal Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 1945(2) and Schedule 4 to the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (procedure on charge of offence against a corporation) apply in a case in which an unincorporated association is charged with an offence under these Regulations as they apply in the case of a corporation.

(4) A fine imposed on an unincorporated association on its conviction of such an offence shall be paid out of the funds of the association.
