
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

1997 No. 455

Reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1997

Defence in proceedings for an offence contravening these Regulations

11. It shall be a defence in proceedings against any person for an offence under these Regulations for that person to prove that he was not aware of the event requiring him to notify or send a report to the enforcing authority and that he had taken all reasonable steps to have all such events brought to his notice.
