Public interest: application by prosecutor

2.—(1) This rule applies to the making of an application by the prosecutor under section 3(6), 7(5), 8(5) or 9(8) where Part I applies by virtue of section 1(2) (trial on indictment).

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) to (5) below, notice of an application to which this rule applies shall be served on the chief clerk and on the accused and shall specify the nature of the material to which the application relates.

(3) Where the prosecutor has reason to believe that to reveal to the accused the nature of the material to which the application relates would have the effect of disclosing that which the prosecutor contends should not in the public interest be disclosed, paragraph (2) above shall have effect as if the words from “and shall specify” to the end were omitted.

(4) Where the prosecutor has reason to believe that to reveal to the accused the fact that an application is being made would have the effect of disclosing that which the prosecutor contends should not in the public interest be disclosed, paragraph (2) above shall have effect as if the words from “and on the accused” to the end were omitted.

(5) Where an application to which this rule applies is made under paragraph (2) above as it has effect in accordance with paragraph (4) above, notice of the application instead of being served on the chief clerk may be served—

- (a) where the offence charged is a scheduled offence, on such judge as has been designated by the Lord Chief Justice for the purposes of hearing the application;
- (b) in any other case, on the trial judge, or if the application is made before the start of the trial, on the judge, if any, who has been designated to conduct the trial or to hear the application.

Public interest: hearing of an application by the prosecutor

3.—(1) This rule applies to the hearing of an application by the prosecutor under section 3(6), 7(5), 8(5) or 9(8) where Part I applies by virtue of section 1(2).

(2) On receipt of an application to which this rule applies, the chief clerk shall refer it—

- (a) where the offence charged is a scheduled offence, to such judge as has been designated by the Lord Chief Justice for the purposes of hearing the application;
- (b) in any other case—
 - (i) if the trial has started, to the trial judge, or
 - (ii) if the application is received before the start of the trial, either to the judge who has been designated to conduct the trial or, if no judge has been designated for that purpose, to such judge as may be designated for the purposes of hearing the application.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (4) and (5) below and to rule 6(4), where the application is made in accordance with rule 2(2)—

- (a) the chief clerk shall give notice to—
 - (i) the prosecutor;
 - (ii) the accused; and
 - (iii) any person claiming to have an interest in the material to which the application relates who has applied under section 16(b) to be heard by the Court, of the date and time when, and the place where, the hearing will take place and unless the Court orders otherwise, such notice shall be given in writing;
- (b) the hearing shall be inter partes; and
- (c) the prosecutor and the accused shall be entitled to make representations to the Court.

(4) Where the prosecutor applies to the Court for leave to make representations in the absence of the accused, the Court may for that purpose sit in the absence of the accused and any legal representative of his.

(5) Subject to rule 6(4), where the application is made under rule 2(2) as it has effect in accordance with rule 2(3) or (4)—

- (a) the accused shall not be given notice as specified in paragraph (3) above;
- (b) the hearing shall be ex parte; and
- (c) only the prosecutor shall be entitled to make representations to the Court; and, where notice of the application has been served in accordance with rule 2(5), the judge on whom it is served shall take such steps as he considers appropriate to ensure that notice is given as required by paragraph (3)(a)(i) and (iii) above.

Public interest: non-disclosure order

4.—(1) This rule applies to an order under section 3(6), 7(5), 8(5) or 9(8).

(2) On making an order to which this rule applies, the Court shall state its reasons for doing so and a record shall be made of that statement.

(3) In a case where such an order is made following—

- (a) an application which has been made under rule 2(2) as it has effect in accordance with rule 2(3), or
- (b) an application which has been made under rule 2(2) but the accused has not appeared or been represented at the hearing of that application, the chief clerk shall notify the accused that an order has been made:

Provided that no notification under this paragraph shall be given in a case where an order is made following an application which has been made under rule 2(2) as it has effect in accordance with rule 2(4).

- (b) if the application is received before the start of the trial either—
 - (i) to the judge who has been designated to conduct the trial, or
 - (ii) if no judge has been designated for that purpose, to the judge who made the order to which the application relates.

(6) The judge to whom an application to which this rule applies has been referred in accordance with paragraph (4) or (5) above shall consider whether the application may be determined without a hearing and, subject to paragraph (7) below, may so determine it if he thinks fit.

(7) No application to which this rule applies shall be determined without a hearing if it appears to the judge that there are grounds on which the Court might conclude that it is in the public interest to disclose material to any extent.

(8) Subject to paragraphs (9) and (10) below and to rule 6(4), the hearing of an application to which this rule applies shall be inter partes and the accused and the prosecutor shall be entitled to make representations to the Court.

(9) Where after hearing the accused's representations, the prosecutor applies to the Court for leave to make representations in the absence of the accused, the Court may for that purpose sit in the absence of the accused and any legal representative of his.

(10) Subject to rule 6(4), where the order to which the application relates was made following an application which was made under rule 2(2) as it has effect in accordance with rule 2(4), the hearing shall be ex parte and only the prosecutor shall be entitled to make representations to the Court.
