- (11) The amount of earnings which is comprised in any payment by way of the conferment of a conditional interest in shares and which falls to be taken into account in the computation of a person's earnings shall, for the purposes of earnings-related contributions, be calculated on the basis of the best estimate that can reasonably be made of the difference between—

- (15) For the purposes of paragraph (14) of this regulation—
- (a) “market value” has the meaning assigned to it in section 140F(3) of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 (supplemental provision with respect to convertible shares);
 - (b) the “amount or value of any consideration given” shall be determined in accordance with section 140E of that Act (consideration for convertible shares);
 - (c) the reference to a conversion which gives rise to a liability for earnings-related contributions is a reference to any conversion which gives rise to a gain which was treated as earnings by virtue of regulation 17AB of these Regulations or would have given rise to a gain but for the fact that the market value at the time of conversion of the shares into which the convertible shares are converted did not exceed the sum referred to in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (14) of this regulation.”.

In accordance with the provisions of Article 47(4) of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1998 (“the Order”), the new regulation 17AB applies to the acquisition of those shares, or an interest in them, on or after 9th April 1998.

Regulation 5 amends regulation 18 of the principal Regulations to provide for the calculation of earnings in respect of a payment in the form of a conditional interest in shares, convertible shares and a readily convertible asset—

- (a) new paragraph (8) provides for the calculation of earnings comprised in any payment by way of the conferment of a beneficial interest in any asset falling within paragraph 9ZA or 9ZB of Schedule 1A to the principal Regulations which is not a readily convertible asset and any voucher falling within paragraph 9B of that Schedule which is not capable of being exchanged for a readily convertible asset;

- (b) a payment by way of a conditional interest in shares (new sub-paragraph (za));
