EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations revoke the Electricity (Standards of Performance) (Amendment) Regulations 1999, S.R. 1999 No. 186, which were inadvertently expressed as having come into operation on 1st April 1999 rather than, as intended, on 1st October 1999.

The Regulations also reinstate the original text of the Electricity (Standards of Performance) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1993.

A further set of Regulations will be made in due course providing for the proper introduction of the amendments which were intended to be introduced by S.R. 1999 No. 186.
