
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

1999 No. 418

Animal By-Products (Identification)
Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1999

Restriction on movement of animal by-products

10.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), a person shall not move or cause to be moved any animal by-product from any slaughter-house, game processing facility or animal by-products premises unless it has been sterilised or stained in accordance with these Regulations.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a person shall not have in his possession any animal by-product which has been removed from any slaughter-house, game processing facility or animal by-products premises unless it has been sterilised or stained in accordance with these Regulations.

(3) The prohibitions contained in paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply to any animal by-product which has not been sterilised or stained in accordance with these Regulations because of a permanent or temporary closure of the slaughter-house, game processing facility or animal by-products premises or a breakdown of the machinery installed there or a trade dispute, and which is moved, under the supervision of an authorised officer, to other premises for disposal in accordance with the 1993 Regulations.
