Conditions for keeping petshops

1. After 4th February 2001—

 - (b) all animals shall be kept in enclosures which are constructed so as to ensure their health, safety and welfare;
 - (c) all animals shall be housed in such a way as to protect them from suffering, harm or distress, taking into account their number, age, size, species and, where appropriate, oestrus or pregnancy state;

3. The petshop shall be managed only by a person who, to the satisfaction of the Department, has either sufficient experience or suitable training and qualifications to provide a reasonable level of care and supervision in respect of the number and range of species which are permitted to be kept within that petshop.
- 4.—(1) The licence holder shall keep a register, which may be kept in either written or electronic form, containing information as follows:

 - (ii) details of each animal's origin or the source from which it was purchased;

- 5.—(1) The licence holder shall, if required to do so by an authorised officer of the Department, produce for inspection at all reasonable times the register kept under paragraph 4 and, where the register is kept in written form, permit copies to be taken therefrom.

(2) The licence holder shall, where the register is kept in electronic form, if required to do so by an authorised officer of the Department produce the information contained therein in a form in which it may be taken away.
6. Animals shall be inspected not less than twice a day (including days on which the premises are not open for trading) to check that they are in a state of well-being. Where they are found not to be in a state of well-being, such measures shall be taken as are required to safeguard them from unnecessary suffering or distress. Where necessary, they shall be isolated in suitable accommodation and veterinary advice shall be obtained as soon as possible if animals are not responding to the attendant's care.

The premises and any enclosures, equipment and utensils located therein shall be properly cleansed and disinfected regularly so as to prevent cross-infection and build up of disease-causing organisms. Faeces and uneaten or spilled food shall be removed as often as is necessary to minimise the generation of noxious gases and avoid attracting vermin.

14. Food and substrates shall be stored in such a way that they will be maintained in a condition which satisfies the requirements of paragraphs 10, 11 and 13.
