Persons not excluded from certain benefits under section 115 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999

Part I

Persons not excluded under section 115 of the Immigration and Asylum Act from entitlement to income-based jobseeker's allowance, income support, a social fund payment or housing benefit

1. A person who—
 - (a) has limited leave (as defined in section 33(1) of the Immigration Act 1971⁽¹⁾) to enter or remain in the United Kingdom which was given in accordance with the immigration rules (as defined in that section) relating to—
 - (i) there being or there needing to be, no recourse to public funds, or
 - (ii) there being no charge on public funds,during that period of limited leave; and
 - (b) having, during any one period of limited leave (including any such period as extended), supported himself without recourse to public funds, other than any such recourse by reason of the previous application of this sub-paragraph, is temporarily without funds during that period of leave because remittances to him from abroad have been disrupted, provided there is a reasonable expectation that his supply of funds will be resumed.
