(7) S.R. 2000/399

(8) 1987 No. 938 (N.I. 10)

- (3) (a) A statement has not been issued in respect of the disciplinary aspects of an investigation under Article 9(11) of the Order or section 59(2) of the 1998 Act;
- (b) the complaint has not been informally resolved in accordance with Article 5 of the Order or section 53 of the 1998 Act;
- (c) the complaint has not been withdrawn within the meaning of Regulation 16 of the 1988 Regulations or Regulation 23 of the 2000 Regulations;
- (d) the complaint has not been dispensed with under Regulation 17 of the 1988 Regulations or Regulation 25 of the 2000 Regulations;
- (e) the complaint has not been otherwise dealt with under regulations made under 64(2)(d) or (e) of the 1998 Act, or
- (f) the complaint has not otherwise been investigated by the police.

Exceptions for certain complaints

6.—(1) Regulation 5(2) shall not apply where the complaint is not the same or substantially the same as a previous complaint or matter and the Ombudsman believes that a member may have committed a criminal offence or behaved in a manner which would justify disciplinary proceedings; and the Ombudsman believes that the complaint should be investigated because of the gravity of the matter or the exceptional circumstances.

(2) Regulation 5(2) and (3) shall not apply where new evidence has come to light which is not evidence which was reasonably available at the time of the original complaint, the Ombudsman believes that a member may have committed a criminal offence or behaved in a manner which would justify disciplinary proceedings, and the Ombudsman believes that the complaint should be investigated because of the gravity of the matter or the exceptional circumstances.

(3) Where the Ombudsman decides that a case falls under Regulation 6(1) or (2), he shall investigate it under section 56 of the 1998 Act.

(4) Where the Ombudsman decides that a complaint meets the criteria in paragraph (1) or (2) except that the case is not grave or exceptional and the Ombudsman believes that the member may have committed a criminal offence then he may investigate it by applying section 54(3) of the 1998 Act.

(5) If any conduct to which a complaint wholly or partly relates is or has been the subject of disciplinary or criminal proceedings, the Ombudsman shall have no powers in relation to the complaint in so far as it relates to that conduct.

Conditions to be met for other matters – referred by the Secretary of State, Chief Constable or Police Authority

7. Subject to Regulations 9 and 10, the Ombudsman shall consider any other matter referred to him under subsections (1), (2), or (4) of section 55 of the 1998 Act if:

- (1) The actions, behaviour or conduct to which the matter relates took place not more than 12 months before the date on which the reference is made; and
- (2) (a) statement has not been issued in respect of the disciplinary aspects of an investigation under Article 9(11) of the Order or section 59(2) of the 1998 Act;
- (b) the complaint has not been informally resolved in accordance with Article 5 of the Order or section 53 of the 1998 Act;
- (c) the matter has not been withdrawn within the meaning of Regulation 16 of the 1988 Regulations or Regulation 23 of the 2000 Regulations,

- (d) the matter has not been dispensed with under Regulation 17 of the 1988 Regulations or Regulation 25 of the 2000 Regulations;
- (e) the matter has not been otherwise dealt with under regulations made under 64(2)(d) or (e) of the 1998 Act; or
- (f) the matter has not been otherwise investigated by the police.

Conditions to be met for other matters – being considered by the Ombudsman

8. Subject to Regulations 9 and 10, the Ombudsman shall be able to consider a formal investigation of any non-complaint matter under section 55(6) of the 1998 Act if:

- (a) the actions or behaviour to which the matter relates took place not more than 12 months before that time; and
- (b) a statement has not been issued in respect of the disciplinary aspects of an investigation under Article 9(11) of the Order or section 59 (2) of the 1998 Act;
- (c) the matter has not been informally resolved in accordance with Article 5 of the Order or section 53 of the 1998 Act;
- (d) the matter has not been withdrawn within the meaning of Regulation 16 of the 1988 Regulations or Regulation 23 of the 2000 Regulations,
- (e) the matter has not been dispensed with under Regulation 17 of the 1988 Regulations or Regulation 25 of the 2000 Regulations;
- (f) the matter has not been otherwise dealt with under regulations made under 64(2)(d) or (e) of the 1998 Act; or
- (g) the matter has not been otherwise investigated by the police.

Exceptions for certain matters

9.—(1) Regulation 7(1) and 8(1) shall not apply where the matter is not the same or substantially the same as a previous complaint or matter and the Ombudsman believes that a member may have committed a criminal offence or behaved in a manner which would justify disciplinary proceedings, and the Ombudsman believes that the matter should be investigated because of the gravity of the matter or the exceptional circumstances.

(2) Regulations 7 and 8 shall not apply where new evidence has come to light which is not evidence which was reasonably available at the time the matter originally occurred, the Ombudsman believes that a member may have committed a criminal offence or behaved in a manner which would justify disciplinary proceedings, and the Ombudsman believes that the matter should be investigated because of the gravity of the matter or the exceptional circumstances.

(3) Where the Ombudsman decides a matter falls under paragraph (1) or (2), he shall investigate it under section 56 of the 1998 Act.

(4) Where the Ombudsman decides that a matter meets the criteria in paragraph (1) or (2) except that the case is not grave or exceptional and the Ombudsman believes that the member may have committed a criminal offence then he may investigate it by applying section 54(3) of the 1998 Act.

(5) If any conduct to which any other matter wholly or partly relates is or has been the subject of disciplinary or criminal proceedings the Ombudsman shall have no powers in relation to the matter in so far as it relates to that conduct.

Initial period

10.—(1) In the initial period paragraphs 5(2) and 7(1) and 8(1) shall have effect with the substitution of “2 years” for “12 months”.

(2) In paragraph (1) “the initial period” means the period of 12 months beginning on 6th November 2000.

Standard of proof

11.—(1) Where a complaint or other matter relates to conduct by a member which occurred or commenced before 6th November 2000 a charge shall not be regarded as proved unless it is:

- (a) admitted by the accused; or
- (b) proved by the person presenting the case beyond reasonable doubt.

(2) Where a complaint or other matter relates to conduct by a member which occurred or commenced on or after 6th November 2000 the person considering the case shall not find that the conduct of the member concerned failed to meet the appropriate standard unless the conduct is—

- (a) admitted by the member concerned; or
- (b) proved by the person presenting the case, on the balance of probabilities, to have failed to meet the standard.
